The Detective In Hollywood

Arthur Jay Harris

The Detective In Hollywood:

Hollywood's Detectives F. Mason, 2011-12-15 The study of Hollywood detectives has often overlooked the B Movie mystery series in favour of hard boiled film Hollywood's Detectives redresses this oversight by examining key detective series of the 1930s and 1940s to explore their contributions to the detective genre

Hollywood's Melodramatic Imagination Geoff Mayer, 2021-12-22 Melodrama is the foundation of American cinema It is however a poorly understood term While it is a pervasive and persuasive dramatic mode it is not tied to any specific moral or ideological system It is not a singular genre rather it operates as a genre generating machine capable of determining the aesthetics and structure of the drama within many genres Melodrama centers the conflict around the clash between good and evil and provides a sense of poetic justice but the specific values embedded in notions of good and evil are determined by the culture and they shift from nation to nation region to region and period to period This book explores the populist westerns of the 1930s the propaganda films that followed the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and the popularity of Sax Rohmer's master villain Fu Manchu Melodramas of passion and film noir also offer a challenge to melodrama with its seemingly alienated protagonists and downbeat endings Yet with few exceptions Hollywood was able to assimilate these genres within its melodramatic imagination

Hollywood's America Stephen P Powers, 2018-02-19 American motion pictures still dominate the world market with an impact that is difficult to measure Their role in American culture has been a powerful one since the 1930s and is a hallmark of our culture today Though much has been written about the film industry there has been very little systematic attention paid to the ideology of its creative elite How does the outlook of that elite impact on the portrayals of America that appear on the screen How do their views interact with the demands of the market and the structure of the industry to determine the product that is seen by mass audiences Hollywood's America is a marvellously rich and careful discussion of these questions It combines a meticulous systematic content analysis of fifty years of top grossing films with a history of the changing structure of the industry To that mixture it adds an in depth survey of Hollywood's creative elite comparing them to other leadership groups The result is a balanced discussion of unique breadth and depth on a subject of national importance Placing the film industry in the context of American society as a whole the authors point out that Hollywood's creative leadership impacts the larger society even as it is influenced by that society The creators of films cannot remove themselves too far from the values of the audiences that they serve However the fact that films are made by a relatively small number of people who as the authors demonstrate tend to share a common outlook means that over time motion pictures have had an undeniable impact on the beliefs lifestyles and action of Americans This study contributes to the debate over the role and influence of those who create and distribute the products of mass culture in the United States The book also contains a devastating critique of the poststructuralist theories that currently dominate academic film criticism demonstrating how they fail in their attempt to explain the political significance of motion pictures

An Affair His Wife Throws Him Out She Gets The Mansion The Business The Cash His Parents Business His Parents Cash She Gets Shot And Doesn't Know It The Bullet Disappears He Goes To Prison His Parents Flee The Country He Weds The Other Woman Behind Bars Has There Ever Been A Case Like This The Miami Herald Tropic Magazine FLOWERS FOR MRS LUSKIN begins with a flower delivery to the best house in the best part of Hollywood Florida Inside Marie Luskin was cautious her husband Paul used to send her flowers but those days had ended more than a year before when she filed for divorce She thought it was safe to open the door just enough to accept the pot of azaleas She was wrong The delivery was a ruse the man pointed a gun at her and demanded her money and jewelry When he left she fell to the floor bloodied thinking he'd hit her with the gun Over 40 years Paul's family had built a business called Luskin's from one store in Baltimore into a chain of consumer electronics stores in Florida Coming of age Paul was taking it over to run He'd already made his first million and he and Marie were living a life their friends admired But between them all was not well Then Paul's high school girlfriend moved to town with her husband and sparks rekindled When Marie discovered it she threw Paul out of the house For a moment it looked like they would reunite She asked Paul to move back in at the end of the day after Thanksgiving the biggest sale day of the year But that was a ruse too That day at the store her attorneys served him the divorce Marie's attorneys were aggressive Accusing Paul's parents of shielding his assets they asked the judge for everything he and his parents had A year later it looked like Marie would get it all The divorce was overwhelming and compound stress Three times Marie had him arrested for not paying his very high support payments exactly on time the judge had frozen his assets and his dad had asked him to leave his high paying job because he couldn't concentrate both on it and the divorce Marie's attorneys wanted Paul's mom to testify for days about the business's finances but because she had a blood clot that stress could loosen and become lethal Paul's family asked them to lay off her They refused Not long after came the flower delivery The Feds indicted Paul for attempted murder for hire They told the jury A Luskin's employee called his brother in Baltimore who was a mob guy who got someone to come to Hollywood to kill Marie Although she thought the gunman hit her with the gun he really shot her his bullet grazed her head Paul was convicted and sentenced to prison for 35 years In prison Paul married his high school girlfriend To me they protested so insistently that there was no murder for hire that it seemed something was truly wrong I eventually found there had been a murder plot but the real question was who had asked the Luskin's employee to call his brother in Baltimore Testimony said Mr Luskin ordered the murder the prosecutor naturally assumed that meant Paul But there was a better case that Mr Luskin was Paul's dad As a result of his son's divorce he lost his whole business owed Marie 11 million he didn't have and was facing jail for contempt of court for not paying her and so had to leave the country At the story's turning point Mr Luskin had to choose between two untenable outcomes the death of the elder Mrs Luskin or the younger But prosecutors also were forced to make a tragic choice Without certainty of which Mr Luskin it was did they choose the wrong one

Lukas,John Marmysz,2010-06-22 This collection was inspired by the observation that film remakes offer us the opportunity to revisit important issues stories themes and topics in a manner that is especially relevant and meaningful to contemporary audiences Like mythic stories that are told again and again in differing ways film remakes present us with updated perspectives on timeless ideas While some remakes succeed and others fail aesthetically they always say something about the culture in which and for which they are produced Contributors explore the ways in which the fears of death loss of self and bodily violence have been expressed and then reinterpreted in such films and remakes as Invasion of the Body Snatchers Night of the Living Dead and Dawn of the Dead Films such as Rollerball The Ring The Grudge The Great Yokai Wars and Insomnia are discussed as well because of their ability to give voice to collective anxieties concerning cultural change nihilism and globalization While opening on a note that emphasizes the compulsion of filmmakers to revisit issues concerning fear and anxiety this collection ends by using films like Solaris King Kong Star Trek Doom and Van Helsing to suggest that repeated confrontation with these issues allows the opportunity for creative and positive transformation The L.A.
