The Chesapeake Campaigns 1813-15 Scott S. Sheads, 2014-02-20 A slim yet detailed volume on The Chesapeake Campaign of 1813-14 which saw the British burn the White House while the bombardment of Fort McHenry inspired the writing of the Star Spangled Banner The War of 1812 was never the most popular of conflicts on both sides of the Atlantic Battered down by their involvement in the Napoleonic conflict in Europe the British largely relied on the power of the Royal Navy in the early years of the war Part of this naval strategy was to blockade the American coastline in order to strangle American commerce and bring the new nation to its knees Nowhere was this blockade more important than in the Chesapeake Partly in response to the sacking of York modern Toronto the British decided to strike at the nation's capital Washington DC and a force of Peninsular War veterans under General Robert Ross landed defeated the Americans at the battle of Bladensburg and took Washington on August 24 1814 Buoyed by this success the British pressed on towards Baltimore However they were forced to withdraw at the battle of North Point and a naval bombardment of Fort McHenry failed to reduce the fort and Baltimore
