Snake in the Strawberries James Hearst,1979-01-01 Snake in the Strawberries James Hearst,1984-01-01 The Religious Art of Zen Master Hakuin Katsuhiro Yoshizawa,Norman Waddell,2010-12-01 A charismatic and extraordinary Zen teacher and artist Hakuin 1686 1769 is credited with almost single handedly reforming and revitalizing Japanese Zen from a state of extreme spiritual decline As a teacher he placed special emphasis on koan practice inventing new koans such as the famous What is the sound of one hand clapping He also stressed the need to extend the benefits of Zen to others What made Hakuin even more remarkable was that he was not only a religious teacher but also a prolific artist Using calligraphy and painting to create visual Dharma his teachings were rendered on paper in pictures characters and images uniquely and magnificently expressing the nature of enlightenment as he wished to impart it to his students The Religious Art of Zen Master Hakuin is a stunning volume containing many of Hakuin s finest calligraphies and paintings along with brilliant commentary by Katsuhiro Yoshizawa the leading Japanese expert on Hakuin and his work Yoshizawa masterfully guides the reader from one piece of artwork to the next sharing the story of Hakuin s life revealing the profound religious meaning embedded in each illustration and providing a detailed documentary of the lessons of one of Zen s most respected teachers

And That's the Way It Was Florence McDaniels, M.ED.,2006-12 And That s the Way it Was is a legacy to her family daughter son and three grandsons and many nieces and nephews as told by Florence Baltimore McDaniels The intent is to tell how a family that had little material things and wealth functioned and worked together to make a happy home The family was poor but the children didn t realize that they were because they had the most important necessity love There were a lot of family oriented activities fun and games and wholesome activities that stimulated a desire to learn and excel in everything that was done Lessons learned are instilled in behaviors such as trustworthiness obedience versus disobedience doing one s part sharing the responsibilities caring for each other and respecting one s parents and siblings It is very important that every individual knows how to spend one s spare time One should have a hobby or develop a skill to hone in on when alone or when you need time to one s self and to reflect on one s inner strength Continue to take on new skills and acquire new knowledge that will enhance and stimulate the mind Try to keep up with current events and be aware of how changes in government and community will affect you When making decisions always try to make choices with which you can live It s all right to take chances but remember that you must live with the consequences And remember that no one is perfect We all make mistakes but once we make a mistake try not to repeat that same mistake again An intelligent person learns from his her mistakes That is how we grow and gain self confidence Great Basin National Park Gretchen M. Baker,2020-02-17 A guide to the attractions natural history and cultural history of the Great Basin perfect for tourists naturalists and historians Great Basin National Park Snake Valley and Spring Valley cover more than 3 000 square miles across portions of Nevada and Utah but few people know much about this diverse area In her guidebook to Great Basin National Park Gretchen Baker covers everything a potential visitor needs to know about one of the country's best kept secrets. The park sits in one of America's driest, least populated and most isolated deserts. It is a place of significant geological and scenic value offering unspoiled vistas, abundant wildlife, clean air and natural attractions. That contrast is one facet of the diversity that characterizes this region. Within and outside the park are phenomenal landscape features, biotic wonders, unique environments, varied historic sites and the local colors of isolated towns and ranches. Vast Snake and Spring Valleys bracketing the national park are also subjects of one of the West's most divisive environmental contests. At stake is what on the surface seems almost absent but underground is abundant enough for sprawling Las Vegas to covet water. This guidebook not only describes the peaks, glaciers, subalpine lakes, caves, hiking trails, campgrounds and historical sites but also explores the cultural history of the park and surrounding area. Each chapter addresses the physical attributes and navigational issues of a specific area and includes an in-depth historical overview. The text is complemented by useful maps and historical photographs and makes Great Basin National Park A Guidebook to the Park and Surrounding Area the most comprehensive book on the region available.

Curses! Broiled Again! Jan Harold Brunvand, 1990-08-17 From the master folklorist and sly wit Jan Brunvand comes a collection of all new urban legends. Did your cousin's wife's dentist's daughter go to the tanning parlor once too often and had her insides cooked? Has your husband's brother's nephew teacher try to make a dead rabbit look alive? If so, you've heard or you yourself may have told two of the seventy-plus legends in this collection. Urban legends are those bizarre but believable stories about batter-fried rats, spiders in hairdos, Cabbage Patch dolls that get funerals and the like that pass by word of mouth as being the gospel truth. But of course, though often told as having happened to a FOAF, friend of a friend, they aren't true. Included in this collection are legends about sex, horror, cars, business and academia. Among them are The Bible Student's Exam, The Pregnant Shoplifter, The Ice Cream Cone Caper, Don't Mess with Texas and Mrs. Fields' Cookie Recipe.

Lee,2012-09 There are two grades of human beings high and low Their grades have nothing to do with material wealth title etc But have something to do with character wealth These character grades determine whether one is likeable or not and if one lives a happy and meaningful life or not High grades enrich other s lives while low grades tire and bore others High character grade doesn t mean perfect but is the one and probably the only one important factor in life Not only in relating to others but also in relation to oneself Material wealth doesn t matter much once economic independence is achieved but character wealth matters most in life For instance high grades are always suffi cient in life no matter what while low grades are always insuffi cient Not only that you always have to be careful of low grades since they are opportunistic and manipulative therefore using others While high grades are genuine therefore enriching not only other s lives but also their own lives Branch Water Children Orva Lee McCarson
