Snake's Daughter Gail Hosking Gilberg, 1997 Gail Hosking Gilberg's father was a hero a valiant soldier decorated posthumously with the Medal of Honor a man who served his country throughout his entire adult life But Charles Hosking was a mystery to his daughter He was killed in Vietnam a week after her seventeenth birthday She buried the war the protests the medal and her military upbringing along with her father so much so that she felt cut off from herself It took more than twenty years for her to recognize the stirrings of a father and a daughter not yet at peace Gilberg began a journey two journeys really to find out who her father was and in the process to find herself She explored her buried rage shame and silence and examined how war had shaped her life In studying the photo albums that her father had left behind Gilberg found that the photographs demanded that she give voice to her feelings then release her silent words words that had no meaning in the world for her The result was an epiphany The photographs became the roads she took in and out of war and her words brought her father home Snake's Daughter reveals the crossroads where a soldier father's life and a daughter's life connect
