Social Amnesia:

Social Amnesia Russell Jacoby, 1975 Russell Jacoby defines social amnesia as society's repression of remembrance society's own past In this book Jacoby excavates the critical and historical concepts that have fallen prey to the dynamic of a society that strips them both of their historical and critical content Social Amnesia is an effort to remember what is perpetually lost under the pressure of society It is simultaneously a critique of present practices and theories in psychology Jacoby's new self evaluation has the same sharp edge as the book itself offering special insights into the evolution of psychological theory during the past two decades In his probing self critical new introduction Jacoby maintains that any serious appraisal of psychology or sociology or any discipline must seek to separate the political from the theoretical He discusses how in the years since Social Amnesia was first published society has oscillated from extreme subjectivism to extreme objectivism which feed off each other and constitute two forms of social amnesia a forgetting of the past and a pseudo historical consciousness Social Amnesia contains a forceful argument for thinking against the grain an endeavor that remains as urgent as ever It is an important work for sociologists psychologists and psychoanalysts Social Amnesia

Russell Jacoby, 1975 Rhyming text and illustrations follow a mischievous old black fly through the alphabet as he has a very busy bad day landing where he should not be As Leaven in the World Thomas M. Landy, 2001 Offers illuminating essays by passionate and well recognized American Catholic intellectuals on the interaction between faith and work By envisioning Catholicism as a cultural force that shapes morality the arts creativity cultural conversation social justice spirituality and vocation the authors invite educational leaders and intellectuals to take seriously their holy work of teaching others how to understand and engage the world from a Catholic perspective Stemming from nearly a decade of conferences sponsored by Collegium a consortium of sixty Catholic colleges and universities this book offers new ways of connecting the content and concerns of Catholic faith to intellectual life across academic disciplines This book helps form a community of inquiry around the issues central to Catholic intellectual enterprise A Climate of Justice: An Ethical Foundation for Environmentalism

Critical Issues in Anti-racist Research Methodologies George Jerry Sefa Dei, Gurpreet Singh Johal, 2005 Anti racism studies have blossomed over the years with scholarship and political work reinforcing each other to cement anti racist change But how do we understand anti racist research How is anti racist research methodology different from other methods of research investigation What are the principles of anti racism research This edited collection attempts to provide some answers by bringing together works that examine the perils and desires of anti racist research with a particular focus on the notion of difference and a serious consideration of the race gender class and sexuality intersections implications of educational research

History from Things Stephen Lubar, David W. Kingery, 2013-06-04 History from Things explores the many ways objects defined broadly to range from Chippendale tables and Italian Renaissance pottery to seventeenth century parks and a New England cemetery can reconstruct and help reinterpret the past Eighteen essays describe how to read artifacts how to listen to landscapes and locations and how to apply methods and theories to historical inquiry that have previously belonged solely to archaeologists anthropologists art historians and conservation scientists Spanning vast time periods geographical locations and academic disciplines History from Things leaps the boundaries between fields that use material evidence to understand the past The book expands and redirects the study of material culture an emerging field now building a common base of theory and a shared intellectual agenda

Principles and Methods of Transformative Action Research John A. Bilorusky, 2021-04-21 Principles and Methods of Transformative Action Research delves into both general principles and specific methods for basic steps in the action research process asking questions gathering and analyzing data communicating findings and pursuing action The role of collaboration is emphasized with strategies of value to experts and engaged citizens in doing participatory research and community based knowledge building Detailed attention is given to specific strategies of interviewing participant observation and judging and weighing evidence The book draws on creative and critically minded elements of scientific traditions such as transparency in telling the story of one's inquiry identifying data that are exceptions to the rule and the value of non formulaic improvisational designs Quite distinctively the book addresses how to write in one's own voice how to integrate action and inquiry into one's everyday life issues of ethics and social responsibility and how to consider both immediate practical needs and bigger picture systemic challenges This book can serve as an undergraduate or graduate social sciences text on research methods It is also a guidebook for action oriented research by academics professionals and lay people alike in community agencies schools and grassroots organizations and for socially relevant academic research concerned with social justice multiculturalism and inclusiveness

Ideology, Culture & the Process of Schooling Henry A. Giroux, 1984-10 This book lays bare the ideological and political character of the positivist rationality that has been the primary theoretical underpinning of educational research in the United States These assumptions have expressed themselves in the form and content of curriculum classroom social relations classroom cultural artifacts and the experiences and beliefs of teachers and students Have existing radical critiques provided the theoretical building blocks for a new theory of pedagogy The author attempts to move beyond the abstract negative characteristics of many radical critiques which are often based on false dualisms that fail to link structure and intentionally content and process ideology and hegemony etc He also is critical of the over determined models of socialization and the abstract celebration of subjectivity that underlies much of the false utopianism of many radical perspectives Professor Giroux begins to lay the theoretical groundwork for developing a radical pedagogy that connects critical theory with the need for social action in the interest of individual freedom and social reconstruction Author note Henry A Giroux is Assistant Professor of Education at Boston University He is the co editor of Curriculum and Instruction Alternatives in Education and The Hidden Curriculum and Moral Education

Opposing Colonialism, Antisemitism, and Turbo-Nationalism Marina Gržinić, Jovita Pristovšek, 2019-11-25 This volume gathers together reflections on racism and nationalism empowerment and futurity It focuses on collective amnesia in regards to traumatic events of the European past and the ways in which memory and history are presented for the future The essays cover and oppose the seemingly disparate genocides committed during Belgian colonialism Austrian antisemitism and turbo nationalism in Republika Srpska Bosnia and Herzegovina implying by no means a homogenization of the experiences What connects these historical situations is the fact that despite available documents to this very day nation states are built on practices of oblivion regarding their past This volume is indispensable for theoreticians philosophers and historians as well as the general public It expresses the demand to critically question our inherited knowledge and to rethink the past for a new future of conviviality

From Fritzl to #metoo Alessia Tranchese, 2023-03-31 This is the first longitudinal study of the language used by the British press to talk about rape Through a diachronic analysis informed by corpus linguistics and feminist theory Tranchese examines how rape discourse has or has not changed over the past decade With its detailed investigation of media representations the book explores how age old myths about sexual violence re emerge in different forms within news narratives Against the backdrop of twelve years of newspaper coverage of rape including many high profile cases this study also traces the rise of celebrity culture the emergence of metoo and the development of the backlash against it The author places these historical events and recent trends within broader debates on feminism and the role played by social media in shaping contemporary rape discourse This book provides a much needed linguistic analysis which will be of particular interest to scholars and students of feminist studies language and gender corpus assisted discourse studies and gendered crime

Remembering Digitally Segah Sak, 2020-04-14 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2012 The notion of digital memories emerged mainly from the encounter of memory studies and media studies as a result of the opportunities of storage and dissemination of data provided by information technologies Yet the notion has become an area of focus for many researchers and artists as the notion of memory itself has always been subject to discussions and works from various disciplines Accordingly Digital Memories project has become an important branch of interdisciplinary studies and of the Interdisciplinary Net network In March 2012 the 4th Global Conference on Digital Memories has been organized in Prague This e book is a compilation of the six papers that were presented by researchers and practitioners from different geographies and disciplines in the conference The authors introduce different approaches to the contemporary issue of remembering digitally elaborating on theoretical practical and creative aspects of the relation between remembering and digital technologies Russia's Denial of Ukraine Nataliya Shpylova-Saeed,2024-05-16 In 2022 Russia heightened its initial 2014 assault and launched its imperialist full scale war against Ukraine The Kremlin continued to perpetrate its denial of Ukrainians as a nation distinct from the Russians Russia s Denial of Ukraine Letters and Contested Memory explores the gradual and long lasting integration of contested memory in the cultural memory of Ukraine It emphasizes how narratives which formed the contested memory in the nineteenth century appeared to come to the fore with the onset of the Russo Ukrainian War At the same time it offers the theoretical premise for exploring contested memory social forgetting and remembering The ambivalent nature of contested memory manifests in weakening national aspirations and strengthening resilience and resistance against violence Contested memory nuances the discussion of undermining a metropolitan center and dismantling oppression Letters reveal public discourses shaped by cultural and political developments centering on the Ukrainians endeavors to remember themselves as a nation distinct from the Russians Epistolary expressions by Mykola Hohol Taras Shevchenko Lesia Ukrainka Ivan Franko and Volodymyr Vynnychenko illustrate the circulation of contested memory sponsored and supported in many ways by Russia Writers comment on their Ukrainianness and situate themselves in Ukraine s entangled past in which empires clash and fall apart Water and War at Pyreneus Mountains: Historical Eco-Archaeology of Lavras do Abade Diogo M. Costa,2011-02 The Lavras do Abade research is a multiple perspective archaeological study about the environmental impacts of a gold mining village in Mid Western Brazil that was destroyed by neighboring villages at the end of the nineteenth century According to local narratives the conflict was the consequence of a dispute about the control and use of natural resources such as water However this investigation reveals that the conflict was caused also by economic and political disputes between the villages in the region In this work each stage of investigation is presented in separate chapters Research was conducted to validate hypotheses and to combine different approaches to each element that compounds this mosaic of information The result of this work is a combination of various complementary investigations into the same object and is a theoretical and methodological referential that establishes the Lavras do Abade case study as an original bridge to understanding many Water Wars in the modern world today Catalog of Copyright Entries.
