modern Japan's constitutive outside minorities migrants foreigners victims of the Fukushima disaster welfare recipients among others this collection of essays aims to draw attention to processes of making and unmaking that constellate Japanese modernity Unlike previous attempts however devoted to destabilizing positivist culturalist approaches to a post war miracle Japan via a critical post structural theoretical vocabulary and episteme the essays gathered here aim principally to examine traces of the making of modern Japan in the fissures and displacements visible at sites of modernity's unmaking Deploying a range of theoretical approaches rather than a commitment to any single framework the essays that follow aim to locate contemporary Japan and the ravages of its modernity within a wider critical discourse of modernity
