Sorrows And Rejoicings:

Sorrows and Rejoicings Athol Fugard, 2002 Two women meet in a small Karoo village after the funeral of David the man they both loved One is white and was his wife The other is black and the mother of his child David who was driven into exile because of his political activism against apartheid reappears in the searing memories of the women During a hot afternoon of truth and reconciliation treaties of love are painfully hammered out The young confront the old and what is hope for these individuals is hope for the new South Africa

New Perspectives in Diasporic Experience Connie Rapoo, Maria Luisa Coelho, Zahira Sarwar, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Taking a transcultural and interdisciplinary approach to Diaspora studies New Perspectives in Diasporic Experience offers a wide range of new and challenging perspectives on Diaspora and confirms the relevance of this field to the discussion of contemporary forms of identity construction movement settlement membership and collective identification This volume investigates constructions of diasporic identity from a variety of temporal and spatial contexts They explore encounters between diasporic communities and host societies and examine how diasporic experiences can contribute to perpetuating or challenging normalised perceptions of the Other The authors discuss how visual and literary representations become an integral part of diasporic experiences and identities Other themes examined include communities attempts to reverse the negative effects of Diaspora and maintain cultural continuity as well as generational differences and dialogue within the Diaspora and the power that individuals have to negotiate marginal identities in diasporic settings

Responding to Global Challenges Camilla Arundie Tabe, Joseph Sam Ngong, 2023-10-05 This book critically explores global challenges from linguistic and literary standpoints aimed at contributing towards their mitigation Composed of two parts contributors to the first section examine issues such as language use in the Anglophone crisis in Cameroon the Covid 19 pandemic migration ethnic conflict hate speech and language shift The second part comprises essays that foreground global problems in literary texts Contributors survey global problems like terrorism gender inequality racism and neo colonialism which engender horror and fuel violence Drawn from various literary texts from Cameroon Africa Europe and America contributors propose language and literature responses to global issues These include using appropriate language and concrete techniques to assist citizens and world leaders convey precise messages for better understanding and nation building New communication strategies could also be adopted to keep life going and improve solidarity worldwide Finally contributors submit that dialogue could be a panacea through stakeholder collaboration and that negotiation is a productive solution to peace and harmony
