Soul Matters for Men Mark Gilroy Communications, 2011-01-18 02 Soul Matters Sara Ahbel-Rappe, Danielle A. Layne, Crystal Addey, 2023-10-27 Platonic discourses concerning the soul are incredibly rich and multitiered Plato's own diverse and disparate arguments and images offer competing accounts of how we are to understand the nature of the soul Consequently it should come as no surprise that the accounts of Platonists who engage Plato's dialogues are often riddled with questions This volume takes up the theories of well known philosophers and theologians including Plato Plotinus Proclus the emperor Julian and Origen as well as lesser known but equally important figures in a collection of essays on topics such as transmigration of the soul the nature of the Platonist enlightenment experience soul and gender pagan ritual practices Christian and pagan differences about the soul mental health and illness and many other topics Contributors include Crystal Addey Sara Ahbel Rappe Dirk Baltzly Robert Berchman Jay Bregman Luc Brisson Kevin Corrigan John Dillon John F Finamore Lloyd P Gerson Dorian Gieseler Greenbaum Elizabeth Hill Sarah Klitenic Wear Danielle A Layne Ilaria L E Ramelli Gregory Shaw Svetla Slaveva Griffine Suzanne Stern Gillet Harold Tarrant Van Tu and John D Turner Men of Influence Bill

The War on Men Owen Strachan, 2023-10-03 Men and masculinity in general are under attack For society to succeed we need strong men to lead us in all areas of life The Arakmbut--mythology, Spirituality, and History Andrew Gray, 1996 The Arakmbut are an indigenous people who live in the Madre de Dios region of the southeastern Peruvian rain forest Since their first encounters with missionaries in the 1950s they have shown resilience and a determination to affirm their identity in the face of many difficulties During the last fifteen years Arakmbut survival has been under threat from a goldrush that has attracted hundreds of colonists onto their territories This trilogy of books traces the ways in which the Arakmbut overcome the dangers that surround them their mythology and cultural strength their social flexibility and their capacity to incorporate non indigenous concepts and activities into their defence strategies Each area is punctuated by the constant presence of the invisible spirit which provides a seamless theme connecting the books to each other Following the Arakmbuts recommendation the author uses their three greatest myths to introduce social cultural and historical aspects of their lives He ends with a discussion of the relationship between myth and history showing how the Arakmbut recreate their myths at the dramatic moments of their history

The Complete Works of C. H. Spurgeon, Volume 80 Spurgeon, Charles, Delmarva Publication, 2015-07-22 Volume 80 The Sword and the Trowel Volume 1 Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834 31 January 1892 is one of the church's most famous preachers and Christianity's foremost prolific writers Called the Prince of Preachers he was one of England's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people often up to ten times each week He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London for 38 years He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons commentaries an autobiography as well as books on prayer devotionals magazines poetry hymns and more Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London Volume 6 1878 quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon's meetings at Surrey Fancy a congregation consisting of 10 000 souls streaming into the hall mounting the galleries humming buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity More than a hundred years after his death Charles Spurgeon's legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world For this reason Delmarva Publications has chosen to publish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon

The Works of President Edwards: Distinguishing marks of a work of the Spirit of God Jonathan Edwards,1830 The Seat of the Soul Discovered, Or the World's Great Problem Solved, Etc. MS. Notes James GILLINGHAM,1870 To Know Christ Jesus Frank

Sheed,2011-06-03 This modern spiritual classic by Frank Sheed the renowned author publisher and lecturer is brought back into print for the benefit of new generations of readers to develop a deeper more profound knowledge of Jesus Christ Sheed's concern with the Gospels is to come to know Christ as he actually lived among us interacted with all the various people he encountered from his infancy to his passion and death the God man who was like us in all things except sin Sheed has tried especially to see Our Lord in his effect upon others seeing how they saw him trying to see why they saw him so There is much about Mary and Joseph in their task of bringing up a baby who was literally adorable about John the Baptist about Mary of Bethany and Mary Magdalen about Nicodemus about people we meet only for a moment like the man born blind and the owners of the drowned swine and why the Pharisees not only the worst of them but some of the best would not accept Christ Faith doctrine prayer worship all the content and consequences of Christian belief rest on the person of Christ Jesus as recorded in the Gospels In this classic study Frank J Sheed employs wide learning theological sophistication spiritual insight and a lucid style to bring the reader to a personal encounter with the living Lord To Know Christ Jesus has been justly called one of the most satisfying studies of the Gospel ever made Frank J Sheed had a distinguished career as a publisher lecturer street corner evangelist and popular writer He and his wife Maisie Ward were the founders of the publishing house Sheed Ward His many books include Christ in Eclipse What Difference Does Jesus Make Theology and Sanity and A Map of Life My concern with the Gospels is to see the Face which through all the centuries has looked out from them upon men The object is not to prove something but to meet someone that we should know Christ Jesus know him as one person may know another As Christians we love him try to live by his law would think it a glory to die for him But how well do we know him Frank Sheed from the Foreword

The Dugum Dani Karl G. Heider, For many years anthropologists have speculated about primitive warfare its place in a particular culture its form and its consequences on other tribes This full scale ethnography of the Dugum Dani centers on the issue of hostility between groups of human beings and the place and function of violence Warfare like rituals and kinship alliances is part of a total culture and for this reason Professor Heider has approached the Dani from a holistic point of view Other aspects of Dani life and organization are shown in interrelationship with the institution of warfare such as the social ecological and technological elements in the Dani way of life Professor Heider examines particularly the role of warfare itself in terms of the particular needs and lack of them The first section of this book documents the Dani and their warfare and provides one of the most detailed accounts of tribal life available The second section focuses on the material aspects of Dani culture to explore the interrelationships of the material objects with the other aspects of Dani culture this analysis is especially interesting since the Dani moved from a stone age culture to steel tools during the period of study itself Professor Heider also notes the distinctive aspects of Dani culture the paucity of color number and other attribute terms the near absence of art their five year post partum sexual abstinence and other traits that seem to suggest that the Dani have little interest in intellectual elaboration or sex and that despite their warfare they are not a particularly aggressive people Including previously unpublished photographs and descriptions of tribal life and warfare this book provides anthropologists with a full and vivid account of Dani culture and with new insights into the general problems of human aggression Provided by publisher
