Words for Odours Melissa Barkat-Defradas, Elisabeth Motte-Florac, 2016-06-22 While the human sense of smell has long been considered underdeveloped there is nonetheless a growing body of literature to attest to its remarkable importance in human behaviour However there has been very little work conducted in linguistics which is all the more regrettable as economic globalization has made it increasingly useful to communicate on odours in a variety of domains such as the wine and perfume industries This volume brings together a number of studies on how olfactory experiences are verbalized applying both pragmatic and theoretical approaches to better understanding the different strategies speakers use to talk of odours Four major themes are investigated here Part I From Olfactory Perception to Verbalisation examines the various complex cognitive operations implemented in the process of olfactory perception Explorations of recollection processes also crucial for odour verbalization provide important insights into how cultural conditions contribute to shaping olfactory memories Part II Categories and Hedonic Valence focuses on how speakers circumvent paucity in vocabulary to describe odours in a variety of ways Sorting operations make it possible to either select an appropriate linguistic label for a given odour or to compensate for the lack thereof by using consistent descriptions Indeed although such cognitive operations are influenced by a subject's environment cultural representations and goals the contributions to this section show that hedonic value is crucial for categorizing odours Part III Lexical and Cultural Variation illustrates that some languages spoken on the African continent such as the Arabic and Bantu languages are relatively rich in their olfactory lexicon thereby revealing the greater attention paid to odours in these societies That being said such relative richness or paucity can be modulated through a variety of mechanisms which shape the linguistic output as exemplified in Part IV Putting Odours into Words where the olfactory lexicons of two Indo European languages French and Greek are analysed from a comparative perspective The Memoirs of a Beautiful Boy Robert Leleux,2024-06-04 In the Dear John letter Daddy left for Mother and me on a Saturday afternoon in early June 1996 on the inlaid Florentine table in the front entry of our house which we found that night upon returning from a day spent in the cr me colored light of Neiman s Daddy wrote that he was leaving us because Mother was crazy and because she d driven me crazy in a way that perfectly suited her own insanity In a memoir studded with delicious lines and unforgettable set pieces Robert Leleux describes his East Texas boyhood and coming of age under the tutelage of his eccentric bewigged flamboyant and knowing mother Left high and dry by Daddy and living on their in laws horse ranch in a white pillared house they can t afford Robert and Mother find themselves chronically low on cash Soon they are forced into more modest quarters and as a teenaged Robert watches with hilarity and horror Mother begins a desperate regimen of makeovers extreme plastic surgeries and finally hairpiece epoxies all calculated to secure a new wealthy husband Mother s strategy takes her with Robert in tow from the glamorous environs of the Neiman Marcus beauty salon to questionable surgery offices and finally to a storefront clinic on the wrong side of Houston Meanwhile Robert begins his own journey away from Mother and through the local theater s world of miscast hopefuls and thwarted ambitions and into a romance that surprises absolutely no one but himself Written with a warmth and a wicked sense of fun that lighten even the most awful circumstances The Memoirs of a Beautiful Boy is a sparkling debut
