From Innocence to Reality Patricia Simms Harrison,2002 Since the winter of 1971 when my father and my brothers sued Keith resulting in their paying him 91 839 60 for his stock I have attempted to discover what would end the lasting conflict between the Harrison family and the Simms family I have assumed as do most Americans that all problems have a solution that the Harrisons and the Simmses would once again become one happy family Yet more than thirty years later the solution has not been revealed Therefore as I am now nearing the last stage of my life I have decided to adopt a different attitude I shall settle for an examination of the past in order to determine the causes and to banish from my mind the achievement of a reunion between our families Soon most of us who have been involved in the conflict will be with God in Heaven and those left on earth will neither know nor care Thus with the writing of this book I shall hopefully gain peace contentment and acceptance for life as it exists rather than life as it were before the suit

Songs of Innocence and Experience Magdalena Grabias-Zurek,2013-07-26 Songs of Innocence and Experience Romance in the Cinema of Frank Capra is a study of the director s chosen movies from the perspective of three types of comedies paradisaical purgatorial and infernal as assigned by Dante in his Divine Comedy Magdalena Grabias views Capra s films in two broader categories of innocence and experience where innocence represents Dantean paradisaical level and experience combines the levels of purgatory and inferno Such a division constitutes the means to interpret Capra s filmic universe and to describe the ever evolving directorial vision of Frank Capra The main purpose of the book is to demonstrate how in the light of the theory of literary romance as presented by Northrop Frye in his seminal works concerning the subject the films of Frank Capra fit into the genre of romance Romantic elements in Frank Capra s movies can be found in both innocence and experience categories and hence consequently in his paradisaal purgatorial and infernal comedies However in both categories and all three comedy types the romantic reality of each examined film is structured and developed in a different manner The book offers an insight into Frank Capra s films and the complex process of creating his multidimensional romantic universe within them
