Representations of China in Latin American Literature (1987-2016) Maria Montt Strabucchi, 2023-11-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM Representations of China in Latin American Literature 1987 2016 analyses contemporary Latin American novels in which China is the main theme Using China as a multidimensional term it explores how the novels both highlight and undermine assumptions about China that have shaped Latin America s understanding of China and shows China to be a kind of literary imaginary third term which reframes Latin American discourses of alterity On one level it argues that these texts play with the way that China stands in as a wandering signifier and as a metonym for Asia a gesture that essentialises it as an unchanging other On another level it argues that the novels employment of China resists essentialist constructions of identity China is thus shown to be serving as a concept which allows for criticism of the construction of fetishized otherness and of the exclusion inherent in essentialist discourses of identity The book presents and analyses the depiction of an imaginary of China which is arguably performative but which discloses the tropes and themes which may be both established and subverted in the novels Chapter One examines the way in which China is represented and constructed in Latin American novels where this country is a setting for their stories The novels studied in Chapter Two are linked to the presence of Chinese communities in Latin America The final chapter examines novels whose main theme is travel to contemporary China Ultimately in the novels studied in this book China serves as a concept through which essentialist notions of identity are critiqued

Understanding Crime in Villages-in-the-City in China Zhanguo Liu,T. Wing Lo,2019-08-15

Rapid urbanization of economic zones in China has resulted in a special social phenomenon villages in the city Underdeveloped villages are absorbed during the expansion of urban areas while retaining their rustic characteristics Due to the rural characteristics of these areas social security is much lower compared with the urbanized city This book uses Tang Village a remote area in the Shenzhen Special Economic Zone as an example to establish a comprehensive analytical framework by integrating existing crime theories in analyzing villages in the city The analysis covers the community individual and macro levels to detail the diverse social and behavioral factors causing crime at multiple levels First a brief history of the urbanization process of Tang Village is provided to establish how urban planning contributed to the issues in the village today The authors go on to explain how socially disorganized communities dictate the crime hotspots and the common types of crime The book examines other risk factors that may contribute to the level of crime such as weak social controls building density and floating populations of poor working class migrants The routine activities of victims offenders and guardians are examined The book concludes with the current trends in the social structure within the villages in the city and their expected outcome after urbanization

China Fictions / English Language ,2008-01-01 The world is anything but unfamiliar with diaspora Jewish African Armenian Roma Gipsy Filipino a Tamil Irish or Italian even Japanese But few have carried so global a resonance as that of China What then of literary cultural expression the huge body of fiction which has addressed itself to that plurality of lives and geographies and which has come to be known as After China This collection of essays offers bearings on those written in English and in which both memory and story are central spanning the USA to Australia Canada to the UK Hong Kong to Singapore with yet others of more transnational nature This collection opens with a reprise of woman authored Chinese American fiction using Maxine Hong Kingston and Amy Tan as departure points In turn follow readings of the oeuvres of Tan and Frank Chin A comparative essay takes up novels by Canadian American and Australian authors from the perspective of migrancy as fracture Chinese Canada comes into view in accounts of SKY Lee Wayson Choy Evelyn Lau and Larissa Lai Australia under Chinese literary auspices is given a comparative mapping through the fiction of Brian Castro and Ouyang Yu The English language China fiction of Singapore and Hong Kong is located in essays centred respectively on Martin Booth and Po Wah Lam and Hwee Hwee Tan and Colin Cheong The collection rounds out with portraits of Timothy Mo as British transnational author a selection of contextual Chinese British stories and art and the phenomenon of Chinese Chick Lit novels China Fictions English Language will be of interest to readers drawn both to After China as diasporic literary heritage and comparative literature in general

Causality and Containment in Seventeenth-Century Chinese Fiction McMahon, 2023-07-31 A number of features characterize late Ming vernacular fiction as part of the general cultural expansion of that period These features centrally include the exposition of sexual transgression and the function of containment by which is meant the ideology of the control of desires The late Ming writers are studiously devoted to illustrating minute obscene or erotic details that belie the decorum of the orthodox surface However this subversiveness of detail decreases in intensity from the late Ming to the early Qing when values of containment are reinvoked Related topics are the theme of causality and its role in the story s mapping of the logic of adultery adultery as an emblem of the woman s escape from containment and the use of the narrative topos of the gap in the wall as a locus of sexual transgression

The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction Huw Marsh, 2020-07-09 The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction explores the importance of comedy in contemporary literature and culture In an era largely defined by a mood of crisis bleakness cruelty melancholia environmental catastrophe and collapse Huw Marsh argues that contemporary fiction is as likely to treat these subjects comically as it is to treat them gravely and that the recognition and proper analysis of this humour opens up new ways to think about literature Structured around readings of authors including Martin Amis Nicola Barker Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Howard Jacobson Magnus Mills and Zadie Smith this book suggests not only that much of the most interesting contemporary writing is funny and that there is a comic tendency in contemporary fiction but also that this humour this comic licence allows writers of contemporary fiction to do peculiar and interesting things things that are funny in the sense of odd or strange and that may in turn inspire a funny turn in readers Marsh offers a series of original critical and theoretical frameworks for discussing questions of literary genre style affect and politics demonstrating that comedy is an often neglected mode that plays a generative role in much of the most interesting contemporary writing creating sites of rich political stylistic cognitive and ethical contestation whose analysis offers a new perspective on the present
