

A black and white illustration of a stone path. The path is composed of many irregular, rounded stones of various sizes, arranged in a winding pattern that leads towards the center of the image. In the middle of the path, there is a larger, more prominent stone. On this central stone, the words "STONES AND POETS" are written in a bold, serif, all-caps font. The background is a light, textured surface, possibly representing a lawn or a path leading to the stone circle.
