Hamner, 1990 Issues of racial discrimination imperialist exploitation and accuracy of observation have long interested Conrad's critics As a European writing about imperialism in exotic lands Conrad offered a vivid but subjective account of the confrontations between the cultures and peoples of East and West Though some in Africa have condemned his novels as racist the books have been used as models for the work of recent generations of native writers This collection of essays places Conrad's work under the scrutiny of an international array of scholars who explore the response to Conrad in contemporary times as well as during his own era Work, the Meaning of Your Life Lester DeKoster, 2010 Where do we find the core of life's meaning Right on the job At whatever work we do with head or hand from kitchen to executive suite from your house to the White House Work is the great equalizer everyone has to come to it in order to find meaning in living no short cuts no detours no bargain rates Tales of Militant Chemistry Alice Lovejoy, 2025-08-26 The untold story of film as a chemical cousin to poison gas and nuclear weapons shaped by centuries of violent extraction The history of film calls to mind unforgettable photographs famous directors and the glitz and hustle of the media business But there is another tale to tell that connects film as a material to the twentieth century's history of war destruction and cruelty This story comes into focus during World War II at the factories of Tennessee Eastman where photographic giant Kodak produced the rudiments of movie magic Not far away at Oak Ridge Kodak was also enriching uranium for the Manhattan Project uranium mined in the Belgian Congo and destined for the bomb that fell on Hiroshima While the world's largest film manufacturer transformed into a formidable military contractor across the ocean its competitor Agfa grew entangled with Nazi Germany's machinery of war After 1945 Kodak's film factories stood at the front lines of a new colder war as their photosensitive products became harbingers of the dangers of nuclear fallout Following scientists soldiers prisoners and spies through Kodak's and Agfa's global empires Alice Lovejoy links the golden age of cinema and photography to colonialism the military industrial complex radioactive dust and toxic waste Revelatory and chilling Tales of Militant Chemistry shows how film became a weapon whose chemistry irrevocably shaped the world we live in today Arun Deep's CBSE Success For All Social Science Class 6 (For 2022 Examinations) Priya Minhas, Arun Deep's Success for All Covers complete theory practice and assessment of Social Science for Class 6 The E book has been divided in 3 parts giving full coverage to the syllabus Each Chapter is supported by detailed theory illustrations all types of practice questions Special focus on New pattern objective questions Every Chapter accompanies Basic Concepts Topic wise
