Greenstein, 2016-08-23 Depicting the Creation of Woman presented a special problem for Renaissance artists The medieval iconography of Eve rising half formed from Adam's side was hardly compatible with their commitment to the naturalistic representation of the human figure At the same time the story of God constructing the first woman from a rib did not offer the kind of dignified affective pictorial narrative that artists patrons and the public prized Jack M Greenstein takes this artistic problem as the point of departure for an iconographic study of this central theme of Christian culture His book shows how the meaning changed along with the form when Lorenzo Ghiberti Andrea Pisano and other Italian sculptors of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries revised the traditional composition to accommodate a naturalistically depicted Eve At stake Greenstein argues is the role of the artist and the power of image making in reshaping Renaissance culture and religious thought Stories of Art James Elkins, 2024-07-31 A thoughtful engaging and intimate history of art that offers a critical analysis of the assumptions on which the entire discipline of art history depends Concise and original this accessible second edition continues to act as an antidote to the behemoth art history textbooks of the past Cultures have their own stories about themselves about other cultures and to hear them all is one way to hear the multiple stories that art tells James Elkins persuasively demonstrates there can never be one story of art now that art historians are concerned with gender diversity inclusiveness and decolonization Stories of Art is an interactive iconoclastic text encouraging readers to imagine how they would present art history in an age of multiple narratives Elkins discusses decolonizing the discipline representing race and ethnicity Eurocentrism post nationalism and indigenous voices while examining histories of art written in China Persia Turkey and India This new edition features QR codes to 27 short videos that introduce challenging ideas about art and history in a clear and open way encouraging active reading and including ideas for writing exercises and class conversations A must read for students and scholars interested in exploring the cultural function of art history *The J. Volume 3: Survival Michael Viktor Schwarz, 2023-04-17 Giotto is considered by many to be the founder of modern painting This thesis is discussed and modified in the present volume on an empirical basis What emerges is that Giotto s impact cannot be reduced simply to the introduction of the study of nature Rather his art was involved in the development of pictorial idioms that were attuned to the skills and interests of their audiences The new approaches in his painting contributed in particular to the possibility of examining and communicating psychological narrative and allegorical content of great complexity outside the media of language and text which not only changed the face of European art but certainly contributed to the intellectual opening of Western societies The Origins of the State in Italy, 1300-1600 Julius Kirshner, 2009-05-15 The beginnings of the state in Europe is a central topic of contemporary historical research The making of such early modern Italian regional states as Florence the kingdom of Naples Milan and Venice exemplifies a decisive turn in the state tradition of Western Europe The Origins of the State in Italy 1300 1600 represents the best in American British and Italian scholarship and offers a valuable and critical overview of the key problems of the emergence of the state in Europe Some of the topics covered include the political legitimacy of the aborning regional states the changing legal culture the conflict between church and state the forces shaping public finances and the creation of the Italian League The eight essays in this collection originally appeared in the Journal of Modern History Contributors include Roberto Bizzocchi Giorgio Chittolini Trevor Dean Riccardo Fubini Elena Fasano Guarini Aldo Mazzacane Anthony Molho and Pierangelo Schiera This volume will appeal to historians historical modern periods we see a constant tension and negotiation between the oral aural delivery of the literary work and the eventual silent read reception of its written text The current volume of essays examines the plurality of forms and meanings given to performance in the Middle Ages and Renaissance through discussion of the essential performance text relationship The authors of the essays represent a variety of scholarly disciplines and subject matter from the performed life of the Dominican preacher to coronation processions to book presentations from satirical music speeches to the rendering of widow portraits to the performance of romance and pious narrative Diverse in their objects of study the essays in this volume all examine the links between the actual events of public performance and the textual origins and subsequent representation of those performances
