Stories from Inner Space Claudette Anderson Copeland, 2003 This is My Story Cleophus James LaRue, 2005-01-01

African American women continue to confess their call to ministry even when they know such a confession may cause them to face criticism and even ostracism from many of the same men and women who nurtured them in the faith In This Is My Story thirteen successful African American women clergy tell the powerful inspirational and sometimes heartbreaking stories of their calls and ministerial journeys which they experienced in the midst of anguish uncertainty and in many cases unfriendly leadership environments Each of the women includes a sermon of particular importance to her The Womanist Preacher Kimberly P. Johnson, 2017-07-28 The Womanist Preacher Proclaiming Womanist Rhetoric from the Pulpit performs a close textual analysis of five womanist sermons to answer the question how does womanist preaching attempt to transform adapt the tenets of womanist thought to make it rhetorically viable in the church And what is gained and lost in this The sermons come from five women who are considered exemplars of womanist preaching Elaine M Flake Gina M Stewart Cheryl Kirk Duggan Melva L Sampson and Claudette A Copeland This book takes the first step in womanist scholarship to dissect what is rhetorically going on in womanist preaching to categorize womanist sermons under the four tenets of womanist preaching and to then create four rhetorical models that reflect the rhetorical attributes of the four different categories or phrased tenets that Stacey Floyd Thomas uses to represent Alice Walker s womanist definition Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave
