The Psychology of Modern Conflict K. Payne,2015-06-09 What does modern warfare as fought by liberal societies have in common with our human evolution This study posits an important relationship between the two we have evolved to fight and traditional hunter gatherer societies were often violent places But we also evolved to cooperate to feel empathy and to behave altruistically towards others

Major Short Stories of D.H. Lawrence Martin F. Kearney,2016-12-05 First published in 1998 This reference guide is designed for those who would be knowledge able readers of major short stories by D H Lawrence when the store of scholarship investigation and appraisal is far too vast for all but the expert An inclusive examination of what has been written about these short stories each chapter deals with a different short story and consists of five distinct sections 1 the complete publication history including all revisions and variants 2 a thorough examination of recognized and hitherto unrecognized sources as well as the influences at work on Lawrence in the creation of the story 3 the story s relationship to Lawrence s other writings 4 acknowledgement and summary of all extant critical studies and 5 a bibliography of works cited This study concentrates on six short stories culled from Lawrence s more than fifty works of short fiction

Trial Stories in Jewish Antiquity Chaya T. Halberstam, 2025-05-15 What can early Jewish courtroom narratives tell us about the capacity and limits of human justice By exploring how judges and the act of judging are depicted in these narratives Trial Stories in Jewish Antiquity Counternarratives of Justice challenges the prevailing notion both then and now of the ideal impartial judge As a work of intellectual history the book also contributes to contemporary debates about the role of legal decision making in shaping a just society Chaya T Halberstam shows that instead of modelling a system in which lofty inaccessible judges follow objective and rational rules ancient Jewish trial narratives depict a legal practice dependent upon the individual judge s personal relationships reactive emotions and impulse to care Drawing from affect theory and feminist legal thought Halberstam offers original readings of some of the most famous trials in ancient Jewish writings alongside minor case stories in Josephus and rabbinic literature She shows both the consistency of a counter tradition that sees legal practice as contingent upon relationship and emotion and the specific ways in which that perspective was manifest in changing times and contexts

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies

Exemplary Stories Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra, 1998 Even more popular in their day than Don Quixote Cervantes s Exemplary Stories 1613 surprise challenge and delight Ranging from the picaresque to the satirical Cervantes s Exemplary Stories defy the conventions of heroic chivalric literature through a combination of comic irony moral ambiguity realism and sheer mirth With acute narrative skill and deft characterisation drawing on colloquial language and farce Cervantes creates a tension between the everyday and the literary the plausible and the improbable

While encouraging us to reach our own moral conclusions he also persuades us to accept the coincidental and the incredible two boys indulge their life of crime at a time of public prayer a young nobleman undergoes a change of identity at the behest of not a princess but a mere gipsy girl and most fantastically talking dogs philosophize in a ward full of syphilitics By placing the extraordinary within the contexts of the ordinary the Exemplary Stories chart new novelistic territory and demonstrate Cervantes at his most imaginative and innovative This new translation captures the full vigour of Cervantes s wit and makes available two rarely printed tales The Illustrious Kitchen Maid and The Power of Blood The Story-Teller Walter Scott, Washington Irving, Charles Lamb, 1850 Honour Killing Ayşe Önal, 2008 A poignant examination of a phenomenon that has gained more attention in the West as the crimes are committed regardless of national boundaries
