In Silver Blaze, Sherlock Holmes investigates the mysterious disappearance of a famous racehorse Silver Blaze and the murder of its trainer in the moors of England. Holmes and Dr Watson delve into a case that seems unsolvable as clues point in confusing directions, including the peculiar silence of a dog on the night of the crime. Holmes ultimately unveils a clever solution, revealing surprising motivations and culprits behind the horse's disappearance and the trainer's death. Each story includes the original Sherlock Holmes mystery as well as a note from the series editor Craig Stephen Copland, the author of the New Sherlock Holmes Mysteries books. The Adventure of Silver Blaze tells the story of the disappearance of the famous race horse, the apparent murder of the horse's trainer, and the relentless application of logic and reason by Sherlock Holmes until the mystery is solved. And so it happened that an hour or so later I found myself in the corner of a first class carriage flying along en route for Exeter while Sherlock Holmes, with his sharp eager face framed in his ear-flapped travelling cap, dipped rapidly into the bundle of fresh papers which he had procured at Paddington. We had left Reading far behind us before he thrust the last one of them under the seat and offered me his cigar case. Sherlock Holmes, the world's only unofficial consulting detective, was first introduced to readers in A Study in Scarlet, published by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle in 1887. It was with the publication of The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes, however, that the master sleuth grew tremendously in popularity, later to become one of the most beloved literary characters of all time. In this book series, the short stories comprising The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes have been amusingly illustrated using only Lego® R brand minifigures and bricks. The illustrations recreate through custom designed Lego models the composition of the black and white drawings by Sidney Paget that accompanied the original publication of these adventures appearing in The Strand Magazine from July 1891 to June 1892. Paget's iconic illustrations are largely responsible for the popular image of Sherlock Holmes including his deerstalker cap and Inverness cape details never mentioned in the writings of Conan Doyle. This uniquely illustrated collection which features some of the most famous and enjoyable cases investigated by Sherlock Holmes and his devoted friend and biographer Dr John H Watson including A scandal in Bohemia and The Red Headed League is sure to delight Lego enthusiasts as well as fans of the Great Detective both old and new.

The Silver Blaze, Sherlock Holmes (Large Print) Arthur Conan Doyle, 2015-04-30 I am afraid Watson that I shall have to go, said Holmes as we sat down together to our breakfast one morning. Go where? To Dartmoor to King's Pyland. I was not surprised. Indeed my only wonder was that he had not already been mixed up in this extraordinary case which was the one topic of conversation through the length and breadth of England. For a whole day my companion had rambled about the room with his chin upon his chest and his brows knitted, charging and recharging his pipe with the strongest black tobacco and absolutely deaf to any of my questions or remarks. Fresh editions of every paper had been sent up by our news agent only to be glanced over and tossed down into a corner. Yet silent as he was I knew perfectly well what it was over which he was brooding. There was but one problem before the public which could challenge his powers of analysis and that was the singular disappearance of the favorite for the Wessex Cup and the tragic murder of its trainer. When therefore he suddenly announced his intention of setting out for the scene of the drama it was only what I had both expected and hoped for. I should be most happy to go down with you if I should not be in the way, said I. My dear Watson, you would confer a great favor upon me by coming. And I think that your time will not be misspent for there are points about the case which promise to make it an absolutely unique one. We have I think just time to catch our train at Paddington and I will go further into the matter upon our journey. You would oblige me by bringing with you your very excellent field glass.
