Nabarun Bhattacharya ,2020-09-30 The book aims to introduce the Bengali writer 1948 2014 to a global audience through some of his short stories and poems in English translation and a series of critical essays on his works A political commitment to literature frames Nabarun Bhattacharya s aesthetic project and the volume wishes to tease out the various perspectives on this complex meeting of politics and aesthetics Be it the novel on dogs or those on petro pollution and the machine the political question in Nabarun echoes significant contemporary issues such as animal rights global warming and techno capitalism This opens up the possibility of questioning the traditional paradigm of humanist values in a world of catastrophic and violent encounters such as nuclear war or holocaust which keeps returning in Nabarun s works SLEEP BABY SLEEP Odile NOEL-SHINKAWA,2022-09-30 Adele and Junishiro live thousands of miles apart but they have one thing in common both have a family secret They also have their own ghosts Although Adele lives in France and Junichiro in Japan they succeed in meeting each other The book is written in a style reminiscent of Haruki Murakami fantasy is never far from reality The book is about ghosts childhood fears magic and love To distance herself from domestic violence a little girl takes refuge in her secret garden where she tries to meet her deceased brothers who died when they were still infants She tries to hear their voices on an old radio plays hide and seek with their shadows in the park and summons them by means of a magic ceremony In the meantime in Japan a sad little boy lives a great love with a young girl who dies chasing after her magic bird But they promised they would love each other for ever But they promised each other they would love each other for ever She comes back as a yurei a Japanese ghost to remind him of his oath At first it s fine with him but as he gets older he would like to be able to date girlfriends without the ghost interfering So he and his friends come up with all sorts of things to keep the yurei away Will Adele and Junishiro be able to leave the ghosts of their past behind and love themselves to the fullest

EBOOK: Beginning to Play Ruth Forbes,2004-08-16 I hope this book will inspire early years practitioners lecturers and trainers to stop and think in the hustle and bustle of daily practice to take a fresh look at the play of these very young children This book does not claim to have all the answers but seeks to challenge practitioners to observe closely and respond to babies as they begin to play Elinor Goldschmied author of People under Three Young Children in Day Care This book focuses on the need to equip practitioners to meet the play needs of children in today s early years settings With babies and very young children increasingly being cared for in out of home care settings it is essential for early years practitioners to be responsive and reflective to ensure that these young children's needs are met in an appropriate way. Beginning to Play explores the young child's right to a high quality multi sensory play environment where play really can begin. It builds on Goldschmied's concept of Treasure Basket play which involves a wide variety of everyday objects gathered together to stimulate all five senses of babies and young children. The book features detailed observations of babies beginning to play at and beyond the treasure basket. These observations support readers in offering rich play materials and experiences. Providing valuable insights and practical support, this reader friendly book encourages practitioners to reflect on and review their own current practice. Supports readers in recognising and responding to babies' signals and communication. Emphasises the need for emotional well being to enable babies and young children to begin to play and examines the effects of non responsive care on babies and young children. Beginning to Play is essential reading for practitioners working with children from birth to three. Beginning To Play Forbes, Ruth, 2004-08-01 Beginning to Play explores the young child's right to a high quality multi sensory play environment where play really can begin.
