Stories Near And Far:

Mental Leaps Keith J. Holyoak, Paul Thagard, 1996-01-31 Analogy recalling familiar past situations to deal with novel ones is a mental tool that everyone uses Analogy can provide invaluable creative insights but it can also lead to dangerous errors In Mental Leaps two leading cognitive scientists show how analogy works and how it can be used most effectively Keith Holyoak and Paul Thagard provide a unified comprehensive account of the diverse operations and applications of analogy including problem solving decision making explanation and communication Holyoak and Thagard present their own theory of analogy considering its implications for cognitive science in general and survey examples from many other domains These include animal cognition developmental and social psychology political science philosophy history of science anthropology and literature Understanding how we draw analogies is important for people interested in the evolution of thinking in animals and in children for those whose focus is on either creative thinking or errors of everyday reasoning for those concerned with how decisions are made in law business and politics and for those striving to improve education Mental Leaps covers all of this ground emphasizing the principles that govern the use of analogy and keeping technical matters to a minimum A Bradford Book     The Short Story and the First World War Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2013-07-31 Covering a range of topics settings and styles the book offers the first comprehensive study of short fiction from the First World War     The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1923     Joshua's Vision William John Locke, 1928     Developing Language Concepts Bridget Burrows, 2017-07-05 This book is a valuable resource for all speech language therapists teachers and support assistants working with children in schools and community clinics It provides practical step by step photocopiable programmes to help with specific language concepts such as amount colour size time and shape The programmes are intended for speech language therapists to copy and send to the school where staff can deliver the programmes although they can be used by the therapist themselves Clearly set out the exercises can be personalised for each child and are graded so that the therapist can select and copy the sheets relevant to the child's needs Each programme introduces the concept teaches it and then checks to see if the child understands it There is also practical advice on setting up therapy programmes in schools such as setting up appointments working in the school with children staff and parents covering letters to send with the programme how to write programmes and many other useful tips     Ancestor Jorico William John Locke, 1929 A treasure hunt story in which four cousins cruise to the West Indies in search of a vast fortune supposed to have been left by an almost mythical ancestor Jones the deaf and dumb valet and his beautiful cousin Ruth play a surprising part     The English Catalogue of Books [annual] Sampson Low, 1927 Vols for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers     The United States Catalog Ida M. Lynn, 1928     The Publishers Weekly, 1927     The Cumulative Book Index, 1928 A world list of books in the English language     Bookseller & Stationer and Office Equipment Journal, 1927     I Can't Fix It but I Know Who Can Sandra Still, 2019-01-10 Lifeliving is a problem and we just can't fix it We can't control it We can't perfectly understand it The past is often a puzzle The present is a challenge And we can't with certainty plan for the future as the future simply has too many what ifs unknowns and variables The Problem with a capital P is life plain and simple Illness death loneliness divorce children who break our hearts friends and family from whom we are alienated Career challenges or a lack of career in the face of job loss Politics wars natural disasters the list of earthly woes is endless We can't fix them but I know who can This book looks at forty nine different situations I have experienced either firsthand or through the lives of friends and relatives They are meditations a word which in Hebrew doesn't necessarily mean quiet contemplation Rather the root word for meditate hagah often meant to moan utter aloud muse and just plain mutter to roar to growl to speak out or in short oftentimes pure lamentation and calling out to God Forty nine reflections on woes and finding God's love within them The fiftieth entry puts the emphasis on Jubilee In the Old Testament guidelines for the newly established Jewish nation directed that every fiftieth year was a time for rest renewal and celebration And so the fiftieth meditation does just that celebrates the Lord's goodness and provision for his people We of the New Covenant the Church can face life's trials and hardships knowing that one of these days Jesus's promise I am making everything new Revelation 21:5 will come to pass In Christ's kingdom there will be jubilee And so let us begin the journey of meditating on life's challenges knowing that we can't fix it but focusing always on the One who can Palmers' Index to the Times Newspaper, 1926

Wisconsin Reading Circles, 1928 Envisioning the Future Marleen S. Barr, 2003-09-03 Writers speculate on the future and the role of science fiction Handbook of Cognitive, Social, and Neuropsychological Aspects of Learning Disabilities Stephen J. Ceci, 2013-01-11 Recognized as the definitive reference in the field this book addresses a broad range of biologically based disorders that affect children's learning and development Leading authorities review the genetics of each disorder its course and outcome associated developmental cognitive and psychosocial challenges and what clinicians and educators need to know about effective approaches to assessment and intervention Coverage encompasses numerous lower incidence neurodevelopmental disabilities as well as more frequently diagnosed learning and behavior problems with a genetic component Book Review Digest Leslie Dunmore-Leiber, 1976 Problem Solving S. Ian Robertson, 2003-09-02 Problem solving is an integral part of everyday life yet few books are dedicated to this important aspect of human cognition In each case the problem such as solving a crossword or writing an essay has a goal In this comprehensive and timely textbook the author discusses the psychological processes underlying such goal directed problem solving and examines both how we learn from experience of problem solving and how our learning transfers or often fails to transfer from one situation to another Following initial coverage of the methods we use to solve unfamiliar problems the book goes on to examine the psychological processes involved in novice problem solving before progressing to the methods and processes used by skilled problem solvers or experts Topics covered include how we generate a useful representation of a problem as a starting point general problem solving strategies we use in unfamiliar situations possible processes involved in insight or lateral thinking the nature of problem similarity and the role of analogies in problem solving understanding and learning from textbooks and how we develop expertise through the learning of specific problem solving skills Clear up to date and accessible Problem Solving will be of interest to undergraduates and postgraduates in cognitive psychology cognitive science and educational psychology The focus on the practical transfer of learning through problem solving will also make it of relevance to educationalists and business psychologists

The Long View Richard Fisher,2023-03-30 A wide ranging and thought provoking exploration of the importance of long term thinking Humans are unique in our ability to understand time able to comprehend the past and future like no other species Yet modern day technology and capitalism have supercharged our short termist tendencies and trapped us in the present at the mercy of reactive politics quarterly business targets and 24 hour news cycles It wasn t always so In medieval times craftsmen worked on cathedrals that would be unfinished in their lifetime Indigenous leaders fostered intergenerational reciprocity And in the early twentieth century writers dreamed of worlds thousands of years hence Now as we face long term challenges on an unprecedented scale how do we recapture that far sighted vision Richard Fisher takes us from the boardrooms of Japan home to some of the world s oldest businesses to European laboratories where scientists work as custodians on centuries long experiments He examines the psychological biases that discourage the long view and talks to the growing number of people from the worlds of philosophy technology science and the arts who are exploring smart ways to overcome them How can we learn to widen our perception of time and honour our obligations to the lives of those not yet born
