Stories Of Teaching A Foundation For Educational Renewal:

Stories of Teaching Stephen Preskill, Robin Smith Jacobvitz, 2001 This unique and compelling collection of stories emphasizes the challenges and joys of teaching that inspire teachers to commit themselves to a profession that is adventurous generous and nurturing It is the only book of its kind to combine highlights and the analysis of stories written by skilled teachers with a discussion of the history of teaching narratives The book contains chapters on the history of teaching narratives and the methods used to entice teachers to write their own stories of teaching This inspires teachers to personalize their own teaching role to see their own evolution and to reflect on their experiences and what they have learned Narratives by Kozol Rose Tompkins and Paley are analyzed and showcased to familiarize readers with the writings of several experts in the field For use at in service teacher seminars or for anyone considering a career in the field of education

Educating for Critical Consciousness George Yancy, 2019-04-23 In this politically and democratically urgent collection George Yancy and contributors argue that more than ever we are in need of classrooms that function dangerously that is classrooms where people are not afraid to engage in critical discussions that call into question difficult political times Collectively they demonstrate the ways activist authors and scholars must be prepared to engage in risk and vulnerability as a defense of our democratic right to practice forms of pedagogical transgression Ideal for scholars and students of critical pedagogy philosophy of education and political theory this collection delineates the necessity of critical consciousness through education and provides ways of speaking back against authoritarian control of imaginative and critical capacities
