perspective of a young volunteer who after being wounded for the first time in Champagne in the spring of 1915 is undergoing further training as an infantry officer and then in the Arras area learned about trench warfare In the course of his participation in the war events of the following years including the Battle of the Somme Third Battle of Flanders Battle of Cambrai German Spring Offensive 1918 he developed into an experienced shock troop leader who was mostly deployed on the front lines was wounded several times and received high honors He often finds himself in very dangerous situations often voluntarily and apparently more driven by curiosity and a thirst for adventure than a sense of duty which he survives with his own mixture of phlegm sensory acuity cold blooded determination and very often with unheard of luck This new English translation comes from the third edition of In Stahlgewittern published by E S Mittler Son Berlin 1922
