Maxim Gorky Tovah Yedlin, 1999-10-30 Maxim Gorky born Aleksei Maksimovich Peshkov in 1868 to the low stratum of Russian society rose to prominence early in life as a writer and publicist Gorky who did not have a formal education became famous in his country and abroad Writing could not satisfy the rebellious Gorky who soon became involved in revolutionary movements After a short period with the populist narodnik movement Gorky became disillusioned with the peasant class and instead he chose the nascent class of workers as the vehicle for change It is as if Gorky and capitalism arrived in Russia together In his view the intelligentsia and the workers would bring about the change in the political social and cultural life of the country Gorky came close to Lenin and the Bolsheviks taking an active part in the Revolution of 1905 and going into an exile that lasted until 1913 Gorky returning home on the eve of World War I and the following revolutions of February and October 1917 became involved in the momentous developments He vehemently opposed Lenin's socialist revolution maintaining that Russia was not ready for it A second exile followed in 1921 After returning in 1928 to Stalin's Soviet Union Gorky was made into an icon with the eye of the inquisition watching over him And here began what is often called The Tragedy of Maxim Gorky He died in 1936 but the circumstances of his death as well as the question whether Gorky is still debated Based on hitherto unavailable primary sources Yedlin has cut through the Gorky legend to show the real person the Gorky of contradictions and oscillations Fascinating reading for scholars and students of Russian history and literature as well as the general public      Soviet Russian Literature in English George Gibian, Virginia Baeckler, 1967      Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2002 This volume provides lively and clearly written expositions of those figures who have done most to shape our views in the period since 1914 Music cinema drama art fiction poetry and philosophy are just some of the fields covered      Lost Adventures Edward Marshall Perdue, 2004 If one wants to begin to understand the GULAG he would read anyone of at least 131 books such as My twenty two prisons and My Escape from Solovetski 1929 by Bezonov Eliuriai Dimitrevich Red Gaols a Woman's Experiences in Russian Prisons 1935 by author did not want to be identified Prisoner of the OGPU 1935 by Kitechin George An Account of the Construction of the New Canal between the White Sea and the Baltic Sea 1935 by Maxim Gorky and 30 writers Many people refer to the book The Gulag Archipelago 1974 by Solzenitsyn I as the book on the GULAG partly from his experience and research thereof The author started with a simple expression written about John W Adkins He left home at an early age and never returned home age There was literally no information about him Most people familiar with my work have been totally amazed at the amount of the information documents obtained by the author from the archives on one individual After many years of work the author did not want to leave this material to just a research project sitting on the bookshelf      European Drama Criticism, 1900-1975 Helen H.
