Stormy Seas We Brave Creative Experiences By Uprooted People:

Stormy Seas We Brave ,1998 This collection points beyond the many public and policy statements to the everyday human experience of these people This book is a source of new insight into the realities facing those millions in every part of the world who have been forced by war civil conflict human rights violations or genocide to flee from their communities or countries or who have been displaced by the colonization of their land and resources Daughters of the Nile Samia

Spencer,2016-12-12 The history of ancient Egypt is filled with fascinating queens and goddesses portrayed side by side with their male counterparts as equal partners each playing a different and distinct role in society Anyone interested in their identity and achievements can go to popular or academic sources and find ample material on the subject How about their descendants contemporary Egyptian women Who are they What do we know about them or about their accomplishments Only scarce and limited information is available In recent years however since the ill named Arab Spring images of Egyptian women have flooded TV screens and print media showing them among crowds of shouting demonstrators Reports have focused on their trials and tribulations and their regressive condition This book seeks to highlight Egyptian women that the media have overlooked and ignored It focuses on a sample of 38 pioneers ground breakers and achievers in nearly all professions academe the arts banking development diplomacy economics engineering entrepreneurship finance government medicine public relations science and technology social services sports international relations and international organizations Their successes in Egypt and elsewhere have been recognized and honored by some of the highest national and international institutions and governments Forgotten or unknown habits practices and historical events occurring in the twentieth century both in Egypt and other parts of the globe are also discussed in these stories The objective of the book is three pronged It breaks the monolithic and unflattering stereotype of contemporary Egyptian women as victims uneducated and uncivilized dominated by men The second is to make the world aware of modern Egyptian champions who are improving the quality of life in the societies and broader environments in which they live and work The third purpose is to provide positive role models for new generations of women in Egypt and beyond to inspire them to set their goals very high despite the obstacles they may encounter and show them that the sky is not the limit Not Born a Refugee Woman Maroussia

Hajdukowski-Ahmed,Nazilla Khanlou,Helene Moussa,2008-06-01 Not Born a Refugee Woman is an in depth inquiry into the identity construction of refugee women It challenges and rethinks current identity concepts policies and practices in the context of a globalizing environment and in the increasingly racialized post September 11th context from the perspective of refugee women This collection brings together scholar_practitioners from across a wide range of disciplines The authors emphasize refugee women s agency resilience and creativity in the continuum of domestic civil and transnational violence and conflicts whether in flight or in resettlement during their uprooted journey and beyond Through the analysis of local examples and international case studies the authors critically examine gendered and interrelated factors such as location
