

The Storrington Papers

It is 1978 when Sarah Goodwill goes to Maidenshall, a Victorian gothic mansion built on the site of a medieval monastery. There she is to become the private secretary of Major Charles Storrington, a career soldier now confined through injury to a wheelchair. Sarah's task is to assist him in the writing of a book based on the Storrington family history. She is entrusted with a bulging mass of dusty papers — diaries, letters, personal notes — which belonged to Charles's Edwardian ancestors. As Sarah pores over the faded writings she is struck afresh by the sinister parallels between the time she reads of and the present. For she herself seems to be re-enacting in her own life the role of Hannah Koon, a lonely but ambitious spinster who had come to Maidenshall in 1910 to be governess to the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Storrington. Both women must care for a starved and difficult child, and the affections of both men in the same direction — until a sinister crime is committed. Slowly Maidenshall yields up its covered secrets, until for Sarah Goodwill and Hannah Koon to be brought quite unexpectedly together, and for present and past to be united.
