In the Shadow of the Mahatma Susan Billington Harper, 2019-06-04 This is a biography of Vedanayagam Samuel Azariah 1874 1945 bishop of the Anglican Church in India from 1912 until his death in 1945 His life sheds new light on the challenges and opportunities faced by religious minorities throughout the world today As a Christian leader in a non Christian culture he negotiated complex cultural social political and economic pressure with exceptional skill and diplomacy As the first Indian bishop of an Anglican diocese and as modern India s most successful leader of depressed class and non Brahmin conversion movements to Christianity Azariah was equally at home with the untouchables of rural India and the unreachables of the British Empire From this platform Azariah inevitably came into contact and ironically also into conflict with the dominating presence of Mahatma Gandhi Susan Billington Harper here reconstructs major events and issues of Azariah s public life including a previously unstudied controversy with Gandhi over the issue of conversion and religious freedom in the 1930s Based on hitherto untapped primary sources including diocesan records and vernacular oral histories expressed in both stories and songs this fascinating volume not only provides the first critical study of Bishop Azariah s life but also offers important at times challenging insights for those interested in modern India and the place of Christianity within it The Origins of Modern Historiography in India R.
