The Temptation of Wealth Emilie Flygare-Carlén, 1846      Temptation, Or, The Unknown Heiress John Frederick Smith, 1855      The Bishop's Temptation Mariana Gavrila, A journalist's life is full of many surprises every day Nowhere else can one find more cluttered news nowhere is life more fugacious their hierarchy is of little importance Bad good they close in upon us The underground water of our daily life comes up over our heads and most of the time we can barely float over its capacious waves That is why we know our acquaintance more and more superficially only We dismiss so dangerously fast his ambitions the anguish For instance I did not know about Mariana Gavrila my true friend that she was searching in her heart for literary achievement Our meetings were rather worldly than spiritual having spent our lives according to the editorial program set for us by others We spoke very rarely of our stuff when leaving the park from the vicinity of our apartments just like when guys go and grab a beer She changed various editorial offices so did I just like one would change public transport quickly communicating the new addresses most often over the phone Until one time when in the calmness of the same park where we had come after a crazy day at work I felt that her words lead with fear to something new something profound for her life These were not related anymore to editorial gossip they were not echoes from others philosophical or literary books the only thing that we were still practicing during our walk with gymnast like easiness She was suggesting I should read a book that was born from within her very own life Knowing the rancor of the civil society that says that in every run of the mill writer there lies a journalist of mark but not in any remarkable journalist there lies a true writer I took the manuscript home and three pages later that I read out of true amity I entered a new life of hers totally unknown to me Events with people torn apart by the cruelty of social precepts dogmas overwhelmed by love that has come at bad age Crucial moments were unfolding to me from her pages in a very crushing way I just could not leave the manuscript off my hands until I read the last word of the novel to come Because that was all about without any doubt I am not recommending Mariana Gavrila's book to be perceived like a frivolous read but as a dispute of one of us the women who don't know whether we're tossed in hell or in heaven Jeni Pasca      The Truth about Lies Tim Chaddick, 2015-08-01 How do we navigate the moments of life with wisdom beyond our years and face the temptations of our hearts with courage and resolve In The Truth about Lies Tim leads us into a new place setting a new framework for how to live and how to live well If you're ready to take the journey I can't think of a better guide John Mark Comer pastor of teaching and vision for Bridgetown A Jesus Church and author of Loveology

Temptation isn't merely about winning or losing a battle. It's about discovering who you truly are. And what matters most. On a daily basis, we are all tempted to enjoy the gifts of this world while making the Giver optional or irrelevant in our quest for life. But what if, in God's purposes, temptation is not merely an obstacle to overcome but an opportunity to flourish in faith? Living in the truth exposes lies and turns moments of temptation into character-shaping opportunities, powerfully displaying our true identity as followers of Jesus.
