Migration-Trust Networks Nadia Yamel Flores-Yeffal, 2013-04-26 In an important new application of sociological theories Nadia Y Flores Yeffal offers fresh insights into the ways in which social networks function among immigrants who arrive in the United States from Mexico without legal documentation She asks and examines important questions about the commonalities and differences in networks for this group compared with other immigrants and she identifies trust as a major component of networking among those who have little if any legal protection Revealing the complexities behind social networks of international migration Migration Trust Networks Social Cohesion in Mexican US Bound Emigration provides an empirical and theoretical analysis of how social networks of international migration operate in the transnational context Further the book clarifies how networking creates chain migration effects observable throughout history Flores Yeffal's study extends existing social network theories providing a more detailed description of the social micro and macrodynamics underlying the development and expansion of social networks used by undocumented Mexicans to migrate and integrate within the United States with trust relationships as the basis of those networks In addition it incorporates a transnational approach in which the migrant's place of origin whether rural or urban becomes an important variable Migration Trust Networks encapsulates the new realities of undocumented migration from Latin America and contributes to the academic discourse on international migration advancing the study of social networks of migration and of social networks in general

Friends' Intelligencer, 1925 Randolph the Blue-Nosed Reindeer Drew Charles Carriker, 2017-02-03 Many years ago on Christmas Eve a reindeer black as coal was born at the North Pole He had a sapphire blue nose that would brightly glow whether he wanted it to or not This makes Randolph the Blue Nosed Reindeer feel alone because he stands out from everyone else Even though he is very close to his cousins who are like a brother and sister to him what Randolph really wants is a friend outside his family One day he builds a snow fawn to get his mind off things Little does he know that the snow fawn will change his life forever Randolph learns why he was gifted with a blue nose He meets many creatures gains new friends and finds love in this very special children s story Unfortunately in the darkest part of the North Pole where the sun never shines and it is always bitterly cold lives a warlock whose heart is blacker than darkness itself This evil warlock seeks to kill the kind hearted blue nosed reindeer and take over everything he sees Randolph bravely chooses to use his glowing nose in an attempt to save the world hoping to put a stop to the warlock s threat once and for all The Power of Anticipatory Images in Student Achievement James M. Davy,2020-10-03 This book features ten high academically achieving low income inner city students from Newark New Jersey who graduated from public high schools at or near the top of their class and continued to excel in college Using a qualitative research design the author interviewed the ten students and the person who most influenced their educational progress about what motivated them to achieve at such high levels Three mutually reinforcing anticipatory images emerged as a common element of their stories In their own voices the students describe the anticipatory images they framed how they developed them and how they used them to their advantage Davy advances a theoretical model of the Anticipatory Competent student who continually progresses in the directions of the images projected ahead Love Where You Live Shauna Pilgreen,2019-01-22 Despite being part of one of the most mobile societies in history it s easy for us to feel stuck where we are Whether because of a recent move or because we re still in the exact same place we ve been for years many of us just aren t where we thought we d be or doing what we thought we d be doing Sometimes we may wonder if God knows what he s doing How can this be part of his plan With enthusiasm and contagious joy Shauna Pilgreen assures readers that yes God does have a plan and a purpose for them right where they are In fact he sent them there She invites readers to live sent showing them how to see their surroundings with fresh eyes and renewed energy Weaving her own remarkable story with biblical habits readers can incorporate into their daily routines Pilgreen equips us to reach out into our communities with God s love knowing that our efforts are never in vain

Edinburgh Magazine ,1801 Networks, Labour and Migration among Indian Muslim Artisans Thomas Chambers ,2020-04-30 Networks Labour and Migration among Indian Muslim Artisans provides an ethnography of life work and migration in a North Indian Muslim dominated woodworking industry It traces artisanal connections within the local context during migration within India and to the Gulf examining how woodworkers utilise local and transnational networks based on identity religiosity and affective circulations to access resources support and forms of mutuality However the book also illustrates how liberalisation intensifying forms of marginalisation and incorporation into global production networks have led to spatial pressures fragmentation of artisanal labour and forms of enclavement that persist despite geographical mobility and connectedness By working across the dialectic of marginality and connectedness Thomas Chambers thinks through these complexities and dualities by providing an ethnographic account that shares everyday life with artisans and others in the industry Descriptive detail is intersected with spatial scales of local national and international with the demands of supply chains and labour markets within India and abroad with structural conditions and with forms of change and continuity

Empirically then the book provides a detailed account of a specific locale but also contributes to broader theoretical debates centring on theorisations of margins borders connections networks embeddedness neoliberalism subjectivities and economic or social flux
