Great Directors at Work David Richard Jones, 1986-06-04 The subject of this book is theatre directing in four internationally famous instances The four directors Konstantin Stanislavsky Bertolt Brecht Elia Kazan and Peter Brook all were monarchs of the profession in their time Without their work theatre in the twentieth century so often called the century of the director would have a radically different shape and meaning The four men are also among the dozen or so modern directors whose theatrical achievements have become culture phenomena In histories theories hagiographies and polemics these directors are conferred classic stature as are the four plays on which they worked Chekhov's The Seagull Brecht's Mother Courage and Her Children and Williams's A Streetcar Named Desire have long been recognized in the theatre and in the study as masterpieces They are anthologized quoted taught parodied read and produced constantly and globally The culturally conservative might question the presence of MarathiSade in such august company but Peter Weiss's play stands every chance of figuring in Western repertoires classroom study and theatrical histories until well into the twenty first century In their quite different ways these are all classics of that Western drama which is part of our immediate heritage
