Tennis A Cut Above The Rest:

Tennis Chris Ronaldson,1985 Historical Dictionary of Tennis John Grasso,2011-08-22 The sport of tennis has been played in one form or another for more than 800 years It can trace its roots to games played by monks in the 12th century Through the years the game has evolved from one in which the ball was struck with the hands to the modern game in which rackets are used to propel the ball in excess of 150 miles per hour From the sport of the elite to the sport played by elite athletes tennis has grown immensely in the past 135 years and it remains one of the few sporting pastimes that is played extensively by people of all ages and all nationalities The Historical Dictionary of Tennis presents a comprehensive history of the game through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography photos and over 500 cross referenced dictionary entries on places teams terminology and people including Arthur Ashe Björn Borg Don Budge Chris Evert Roger Federer Billie Jean King Rod Laver Suzanne Lenglen John McEnroe Rafael Nadal Martina Navratilova and Bill Tilden Appendixes of the members of the International Tennis Hall of Fame the Major Championships of Tennis and the Olympic games are included This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about tennis Dover Goes to Pott Joyce Porter,2019-12-26 Detective Chief Inspector Wilfred Dover is the most idle and avaricious hero in all of crime fiction Why should he even be bothered to solve the case The town of Pott Winckle owes its prosperity to the firm of Wibbly Ware Naturally when the owner's daughter is murdered the call goes out for Scotland Yard's finest Once again Dover is off the reluctant Sergeant MacGregor in tow All Dover has to do to clinch this one is settle back in Wibbly's Rolls Royce perhaps bend a bit of evidence or maybe a few fingers Oddly enough and not for the first time his methods result in something resembling a solution Editorial reviews Something quite out of the ordinary Daily Telegraph Joyce Porter is a joy Dover is unquestionably the most entertaining detective in fiction Guardian Plotted with the technique of a virtuoso New York Times Wonderfully funny Spectator Dover is wildly joyously unbelievable and may he remain so for our comic delight Sun You will be fascinated by his sheer dazzling incompetence Porter has a keen eye a wicked sense of comedy and a delightfully low mind Harper's What Stays in Vegas Adam Tanner,2014-09-02 The greatest threat to privacy today is not the NSA but good old American companies Internet giants leading retailers and other firms are voraciously gathering data with little oversight from anyone In Las Vegas no company knows the value of data better than Caesars Entertainment Many thousands of enthusiastic clients pour through the ever open doors of their casinos The secret to the company's success lies in their one unrivaled asset they know their clients intimately by tracking the activities of the overwhelming majority of gamblers They know exactly what games they like to play what foods they enjoy for breakfast when they prefer to visit who their favorite hostess might be and exactly how to keep them coming back for more Caesars dogged data gathering methods have been so successful that they have grown to become the world's largest casino operator and have inspired companies of all kinds to ramp up their own data mining in the hopes of boosting their targeted marketing efforts Some do this themselves

Some rely on data brokers Others clearly enter a moral gray zone that should make American consumers deeply uncomfortable We live in an age when our personal information is harvested and aggregated whether we like it or not And it is growing ever more difficult for those businesses that choose not to engage in more intrusive data gathering to compete with those that do Tanner s timely warning resounds Yes there are many benefits to the free flow of all this data but there is a dark unregulated and destructive netherworld as well

The Road To Nab End William Woodruff,2012-09-20 William Woodruff had the sort of childhood satirised in the famous Monty Python Yorkshireman sketch The son of a weaver he was born on a pallet of straw at the back of the mill and two days later his mother was back at work Life was extrememly tough for the family in 1920 s Blackburn a treat was sheep s head or cow heel soup and got worse when his father lost his job when the cotton industry started its terminal decline Woodruff had to find his childhood fun in the little free time he had available between his delivery job and school but he never writes self pityingly leaving the reader to shed the tears on his behalf At ten his mother takes him on his one and only holiday to Blackpool He never wonders where they get the money to do so only where she disappears to with strange men in the afternoons before taking him to the funfair pockets jingling an hour or two later NAB END is certainly not all grime and gloom however there s a cast of great minor characters from an unfrocked vicar to William s indomitable grandmother Bridget who lend some colour and humour and all against the strongly rendered social backdrop of the 1920s and 1930s
