Tennyson's Poems R. H. Winnick, 2019-04-18 In Tennyson's Poems New Textual Parallels R H Winnick identifies more than a thousand previously unknown instances in which Tennyson phrases of two or three to as many as several words are similar or identical to those occurring in prior works by other hands discoveries aided by the proliferation of digitized texts and the related development of powerful search tools over the three decades since the most recent major edition of Tennyson's poems was published Each of these instances may be deemed an allusion meant to be recognized as such and pointing for definable purposes to a particular antecedent text an echo conscious or not deliberate or not meant to be noticed or not meaningful or not or merely accidental Unless accidental Winnick writes these new textual parallels significantly expand our knowledge both of Tennyson's reading and of his thematic intentions and artistic technique Coupled with the thousand plus textual parallels previously reported by Christopher Ricks and other scholars he says they suggest that a fundamental and lifelong aspect of Tennyson's art was his habit of echoing any work ancient or modern which had the potential to enhance the resonance or deepen the meaning of his poems The new textual parallels Winnick has identified point most often to the King James Bible and to such canonical authors as Shakespeare Milton Dryden Pope Thomson Cowper Shelley Byron and Wordsworth But they also point to many authors rarely if ever previously cited in Tennyson editions and studies including Michael Drayton Richard Blackmore Isaac Watts Erasmus Darwin John Ogilvie Anna Letitia Barbauld Letitia Elizabeth Landon John Wilson and with surprising frequency Felicia Hemans Tennyson's Poems New Textual Parallels is thus a major new resource for Tennyson scholars and students an indispensable adjunct to the 1987 edition of Tennyson's complete poems edited by Christopher Ricks The Letters of Alfred Lord Tennyson, 1851-1870 Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson, 1987-07 The first volume of The Letters of Alfred Lord Tennyson showed the young man becoming a poet and recorded the experiences out of which so much of his poetry was forged that culminated in three personal triumphs marriage In Memoriam and the Poet Laureateship Volume II reveals the gradual emergence of a new and different Tennyson moving confidently among the great and famous the intellectual political and artistic elite yet remaining very much a son of Lincolnshire whose childlike simplicity of manner strikes all who meet him As a young man he was obliged to be paterfamilias of his father's family now he has a family of his own with two sons reaching manhood two houses and two lives one in London and the other at home Through the letters we learn something about his poetry including Maud and The Idylls of the King much about his dealings with publishers and even more about his travels in Scotland Wales Cornwall Norway Switzerland Auvergne Brittany the Pyrenees and it is clear that all that he met became part of him and of his poetry By the close of this volume he is one of the two or three most famous names in the English speaking literary world The edition includes an abundance of letters to and about Tennyson as well as by him and its generous annotation has been commended by reviewers for its range and wit Preacher and Homiletic Monthly ,1905 The Homiletic Review ,1905
