Kinethic California Naomi Macalalad Bragin,2024-04-30 Kinethic California Dancing Funk and Disco Era Kinships documents the emergence of new forms of black social and vernacular dance invented by youth living in 1970s California who helped build the foundations of contemporary hip hop streetdance culture Naomi Macalalad Bragin weaves interviews and ethnographies of first generation 1960s 70s dancers of strutting boogaloo robotting popping locking waacking and punking styles as it advances a theory of dance as kinetic kinship formation through a focus on techniques and practices of the dancers themselves She offers that the term given to these collective movement practices is kinethic to bring attention to motion at the core of black aesthetics that generate dances as forms of kinship beyond blood relation Kinethics reorient dancers toward kinetic kinship in ways that give continuity to black dance lineages under persistent conditions of disappearance and loss As dancers engage kinethics they reinvent gestural vocabularies that describe worlds they imagine into knowing being The stories in Kinethic California attend to the aesthetics of everyday movement seen through the lens of young artists who from childhood listened to their family's soul and funk records observed the bent leg strolls and rhythmic handshakes of people moving through their neighborhoods and watched each other move at house parties school gyms and around the way social clubs Their aesthetic sociality and geographic movement provided materials for collective study and creative play Bragin attends to such multidirectional conversations between dancer community and tradition by which California dance lineages emerge and take flight

Jesus, Jacinto, and Granny's Bottom Brenda Duncan Johns, 2013-04

When I was fifteen years old I married the boy that I had fallen in love with when I was just thirteen Gerald was the only boy I ever truly loved and after we married we had to leave our little ghost town of Jacinto and move to Kenosha Wisconsin to make a living I had never been more than twenty five miles from home until then My parents raised me in the Methodist religion but after moving to Kenosha I quit church completely and went deep into sin The nightlife in the juke joints really got a hold of me and I was lured into a life I never thought I'd live I found out that that kind of life only leads to despair and heartbreak and I began to wonder if God was real Would He help a poor sinner like me What life had in store for me proved that God is real and that He gave his only son Jesus so that I could have everlasting life On my journey to find this truth I've seen the good the bad and the ugly in religion I've seen false prophets cults and self loving preachers Come walk with me on my journey I think in the end you will have to agree with an old Baptist preacher who once said I do believe that old gal is real for God
