Little Girl Gone Margaret Fenton,2024-01-23 A social worker turns amateur sleuth when a teen in her care goes missing and the girl s mother is found murdered in this southern domestic thriller Claire Conover is in a bind The thirteen year old girl who had been taken into custody for sleeping behind a grocery store has disappeared without a trace Worse her mother s dead body is discovered on a construction site Is it possible the runaway daughter pulled the trigger Or is the girl a victim of her murdered mother s shady lifestyle The only thing Claire knows is she needs to find the girl fast even if it means teaming up with an investigative reporter whose intentions toward her may be more than platonic Prowling the streets of Birmingham Claire works to solve the dark puzzle of the girl s life desperate to find her alive and keep her safe once and for all Praise for Little Lamb Lost Book 1 of the Claire Conover Mysteries Fenton puts her experiences as a social worker to good use in her promising debut With her fine ear for regional speech Fenton may do for Birmingham what Margaret Maron has done for rural North Carolina Publishers Weekly A relentless social worker makes an intriguing amateur sleuth and Birmingham offers a fresh take on the New South as a setting for crime fiction A promising new series Booklist The Asylum Speaker Katrijn Maryns,2014-06-03 Drawing on first hand ethnographic data field interviews with interpreters interviewers and decision makers observations and off record comments The Asylum Speaker examines discursive processes in the asylum procedure and the impact these processes may have on the determination of refugee status The book starts from the assumption that far reaching legal decisions often have to be made on very limited grounds Unable to submit any evidence to substantiate their case the only chance that many asylum seekers have is to argue their case during the oral hearings with public officials at the different asylum agencies Maryns investigates the performance of the asylum seeker during these interviews and analyzes the relationship between narrative structuring and gradations of linguistic competence She explores a number of related questions first how the interaction between applicants and public officials proceeds second how this interaction forms the discursive input into long and complicated textual trajectories and third how the outcome of these discursive processes affects the assessment of asylum applications Maryns demonstrates how propositional aspects play a crucial role in the asylum procedure whereas little attention is paid to narrative linguistic diversity and multilingual speaker repertoires Her analysis reveals how insufficient insight into the linguistic structure and narrative features of the asylum account often results in a deficient processing of important details Reports from Commissioners Great Britain.
