Psalms 73-150 Herman J. Selderhuis, 2018-11-13 Christians have often turned to the Book of Psalms as a significant resource for Christian belief and practice and as the church's prayer book and hymnal. The Protestant reformers also turned to the Psalms during their time of significant spiritual renewal, theological debate, and ecclesial reform. In this RCS volume, Herman Selderhuis guides readers through Reformation era commentary on the second half of the Psalter. Death in the Iron Age II and in First Isaiah Christopher B. Hays, 2011 Death is one of the major themes of First Isaiah although it has not generally been recognized as such. Images of death are repeatedly used by the prophet and his earliest tradents. The book begins by concisely summarizing what is known about death in the Ancient Near East during the Iron Age II, covering beliefs and practices in Mesopotamia, Egypt, Syria, Palestine, and Judah/Israel. Incorporating both textual and archeological data, Christopher B. Hays surveys and analyzes existing scholarly literature on these topics from multiple fields. Focusing on the text's meaning for its producers and its initial audiences, he describes the ways in which the rhetoric of death functioned in its historical context and offers fresh interpretations of more than a dozen passages in Isa 5:38. He shows how they employ the imagery of death that was part of their cultural contexts and also identifies ways in which they break new creative ground. This holistic approach to questions that have attracted much scholarly attention in recent decades produces new insights not only for the interpretation of specific biblical passages but also for the formation of the book of Isaiah and for the history of ancient Near Eastern religions. The Preacher's Commentary - Vol. 14: Psalms 73-150 Don Williams, 2004-07-28 Written BY Preachers and Teachers FOR Preachers and Teachers. Combining fresh insights with readable exposition and relatable examples, The Preacher's Commentary will help you minister to others and see their lives transformed through the power of God's Word. Whether preacher, teacher, or Bible study leader, if you're a communicator, The Preacher's Commentary will help you share God's Word more effectively with others. This volume on the second half of the book of Psalms will teach you how to invite others into the experience of the psalms as they pour their heart out to God and allow us to be filled with a fresh word from God. Each volume is written by one of today's top scholars and includes innovative ideas for preaching and teaching God's Word. Vibrant paragraph-by-paragraph exposition. Impelling real-life illustrations. Insightful and relevant contemporary application. An introduction which reveals the author's approach. A full outline of the biblical book being covered. Scripture passages using the New King James Version and explanations. The Preacher's Commentary offers pastors, teachers, and Bible study leaders clear and compelling insights into the Bible that will equip them to understand, apply, and teach the truth in God's Word. Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, 1857 A Covenant with Death Christopher B. Hays, 2015 Shows how ancient Near Eastern attitudes toward death illumine the Hebrew Bible. Death is one of the major themes of First Isaiah although it has not generally been recognized as such. In this work, Christopher Hays offers fresh interpretations of more than a dozen passages in Isaiah 5:38 in light of ancient beliefs about death. What especially distinguishes Hays's study is its holistic approach as he brilliantly synthesizes both literary and archaeological evidence resulting in new insights. Hays first summarizes what is known about death in the ancient Near East during the Second Iron Age covering beliefs and practices in Mesopotamia, Egypt, Syria, Palestine, and Judah/Israel. He then shows how select passages in the first part of Isaiah employ the rhetorical imagery of death that was part of their cultural context; further, he identifies ways in which these texts break new creative ground. The Covenant Keeping God Rev.
