June Arlington,1902     Dead End Joe McLennan,2013-06-06 It s October 31st Halloween night a bitterly cold wind has made the autumn dark night air wickedly frigidly damp and uncomfortably raw Hanging high up over head an eerie full moon mysteriously glares down over the small quiet northern New England rural town of Bridge falls in anticipation as if welcoming the horrors of the night to come Engulfed by thick giant and freakish looking trees the Connelly house hauntingly sits tucked all alone at the very end strangely nestled within the monstrous forest As a rough brisk wind wildly rustles down the dark and deserted dead end road of Pumpkin Drive the Connelly house waits patiently in the thick blackness of the night for it s guests to arrive For Jack

Ridges and five other unlucky contestants who replied to an intriguing and mysterious add on line looking for six participants to spend the night in the Connelly house on Halloween night A night they jokingly assumed was going to be a night of corny pranks and cheap scares turns into a terrifying night of blood drenched nightmares and horrors of unimagineable demonic proportions Trapped inside of the old Connelly house Jack and the others must find a way out before the blood thirsty demonic spirit of William Connelly finds them first
