The Death Of The Family:

Death in the Family John Chipman, 2017-01-10 In this national bestseller a work of vigorous reporting deep compassion and unerring integrity award winning journalist and documentarian John Chipman investigates the lives left ruined in the wake of Dr Charles Smith's ignominious career In the mid 90s the Ontario Coroner's office decided that death investigation teams needed to think dirty They wanted coroners pathologists and police to be more suspicious to assume that all deaths are homicides until satisfied that they are not They were particularly concerned about pediatric deaths which historically had been exceedingly difficult to investigate There were usually no witnesses no evidence to gather at the scene no outward signs of trauma on the body If the pathologist did not discover the truth of what had happened child abuse could go uncovered Among those charged to think dirty was Dr Charles Smith Ontario's top pediatric forensic pathologist at the time But with virtually no training in forensics Dr Smith was ill prepared for his work Instead of basing his judgments on forensic evidence found during autopsies he allowed himself to be swayed by circumstantial evidence The defendants were often single mothers some on welfare some struggling with substance abuse And they made for easy targets Dr Smith made dangerous assumptions and the results were catastrophic Numerous individuals were pronounced guilty and incarcerated on his shaky evidence This penetrating investigative work explores the wide ripples of destruction caused when the justice system fails the burden felt by ethical individuals working within that system and the importance of its victims finally being heard
