Kress,Robert Lake,2013-02-11 As standardization and accountability have continued to increase in the 21st century educators and scholars of education have become increasingly frustrated Yet as frustrated as we are it is essential that we not send to our our students children grandchildren the message that the past was better and they should have been there Instead we must render a clear vision of what can be Indeed where would we be without the vision we have been freely given to us from great scholars philosophers and artists as well as our own teachers friends neighbors and family We are indebted to carry forward the legacy of these torchbearers to present and future educators This book is a collection of letters to 21st century educators of all age levels and content areas It has been compiled with the goal of fulfilling our responsibility to share with the next generation of educators our vision of the future just as our predecessors and role models shared theirs with us Informed by the past but oriented toward the future this collection aims to inspire in present and future educators hope wisdom and imagination for addressing the educational challenges shaped by bureaucratic economic and cultural forces Authors such as Nel Noddings Sonia Nieto Sandy Grande Riane Eisler Mike Rose William Schubert William Reynolds and many more speak directly to their readers building a relationship with a scholarly backbone and encouraging we saved the best for you because the best is the world you will create Ordinary Goodness Mr. Edward Viljoen,2017-01-03 A call to action to live a life full of goodness and purpose People often struggle to find a life filled with passion happiness and just plain goodness This struggle drives many to depression and addictive tendencies Author and New Thought minister Edward Viljoen argues that the struggle need not be an arduous or painful one that through everyday acts of kindness faith and compassion we can create peaceful and contented lives Using personal stories practical tips and exercises this book shows us that regardless of our circumstances we can create meaning and beauty in our lives and in the world Viljoen offers deep insights showing How caring about ordinary things leads to meaningful and extraordinary life experiences How society's messages about perfection distract us from our ordinary goodness How faith is a muscle that must be exercised People are always striving to live happy and fulfilled lives This book reassures us that this is attainable nothing extraordinary is required
