Ethical Security Studies Jonna Nyman,Anthony Burke,2016-03-02 At a time of grave ethical failure in global security affairs this is the first book to bring together emerging theoretical debates on ethics and ethical reasoning within security studies In this volume working from a diverse range of perspectives poststructuralism liberalism feminism just war securitization and critical theory leading scholars in the field of security studies consider the potential for ethical visions of security and lay the ground for a new field ethical security studies These ethical visions of security engage directly with the meaning and value of security and security practice and consider four key questions Who or what should be secured What are the fundamental grounds and commitments of different security ethics Who or what are the most legitimate agents providers or speakers of security What do ethical security practices look like What ethical principles arguments or procedures will generate and guide ethical security practices Informed by a rich understanding of the intellectual and historical experience of security the contributors advance innovative methodological analytical political and ethical arguments that represent the cutting edge of the field This book opens a new phase of collaboration and growth that promises to have great benefits for the more humane effective and ethical practice of security politics This book will be of much interest to students of critical security studies ethics philosophy and international relations Black Utopias Jayna Brown,2021-01-11 In Black Utopias Jayna Brown takes up the concept of utopia as a way of exploring alternative states of being doing and imagining in Black culture Musical literary and mystic practices become utopian enclaves in which Black people engage in modes of creative worldmaking Brown explores the lives and work of Black women mystics Sojourner Truth and Rebecca Cox Jackson musicians Alice Coltrane and Sun Ra and the work of speculative fiction writers Samuel Delany and Octavia Butler as they decenter and destabilize the human radically refusing liberal humanist ideas of subjectivity and species Brown demonstrates that engaging in utopian practices Black subjects imagine and manifest new genres of existence and forms of collectivity For Brown utopia consists of those moments in the here and now when those excluded from the category human jump into other onto epistemological realms Black people untethered from the hope of rights recognition or redress celebrate themselves as elements in a cosmic effluvium At the Edge of Law Andrew Francis,2016-04-15 Following significant changes in the legal profession since the 1980s how do new organizational forms and actors at the edge of the law impact upon our understanding of the changing nature of the core values of mainstream legal professionalism This methodological approach brings together a series of case studies built on original empirical research and focuses on those operating at the margins of legal professionalism in England and Wales Also including comparative material on the US and Canada the issues discussed are relevant for common law countries more generally and the analysis reveals the ways in which an increasingly fluid fragmented and heterogeneous legal profession is responding to the challenges it faces in the early twenty first century The Oxford Handbook of Multimethod and Mixed Methods Research Inquiry Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber,R. Burke Johnson,2015-06-04 Offering a variety of innovative methods and tools The Oxford Handbook of Multimethod and Mixed Methods Research Inquiry provides the most comprehensive and up to date presentation on multi and mixed methods research available Written in clear and concise language by leading scholars in the field it enhances and disrupts traditional ways of asking and addressing complex research questions Topics include an overview of theory paradigms and scientific inquiry a guide to conducting a multi and mixed methods research study from start to finish current uses of multi and mixed methods research across academic disciplines and research fields the latest technologies and how they can be incorporated into study design and a presentation of multiple perspectives on the key remaining debates Each chapter in the volume is structured to include state of the art research examples that cross a range of disciplines and interdisciplinary research settings In addition the Handbook offers multiple quantitative and qualitative theoretical and interdisciplinary visions and praxis Researchers faculty graduate students and policy makers will appreciate the exceptional timely and critical coverage in this Handbook which deftly addresses the interdisciplinary and complex questions that a diverse set of research communities are facing today The Datafied Society Mirko Tobias Schäfer,Karin Es,2025-10-01 As machine readable data comes to play an increasingly important role in everyday life researchers find themselves with rich resources for studying society The novel methods and tools needed to work with such data require not only new knowledge and skills but also a new way of thinking about best research practices This book critically reflects on the role and usefulness of big data challenging overly optimistic expectations about what such information can reveal introducing practices and methods for its analysis and visualisation and raising important political and ethical questions regarding its collection handling and presentation Assessing Psychosis James H. Kleiger,Ali Khadivi,2015-02-11 A practical straightforward and hands on guide to understanding psychosis and its assessment and diagnosis Will be accessible to a wide range of mental health professionals rather than just clinical psychologists and psychiatrists Two detailed clinical case examples are provided in the final section to illustrate the material presented Alternative (Im)Mobilities Maria Alice Nogueira,2022-07-27 By introducing the new concept of alternative im mobilities this collection draws attention to a different approach to mobility practices In doing so this ground breaking volume explores a range of issues related related to im mobilities and the Covid 19 pandemic transport and social practices and media and urban tourism Designed and organized in a legally or illegally way alternative im mobilities are examples of those daily practices of displacement of people objects and information which mobilize a multidisciplinary framework of urbanization shedding light on important and long standing issues of inequality and the lack of recognition of diversity in economics social and culture urban life This volume opens up a new set of research questions related to the complex ways in which informal actors cope with their everyday life experience regarding dwelling commuting working caring of vulnerable people health issues access to information among other mobility practices besides the lack of essential and infrastructural public services This volume will be of great interest to researchers and scholars in geography and the social sciences interested in mobilities transport communication tourism mobility justice and inequality public decision making and health studies Interracial Communication Mark P. Orbe,Tina M. Harris,2022-11-11 As the racial and ethnic landscape of the United States shifts interracial communication plays an increasingly crucial role The sociopolitical climate has impacted identities relationships media and organizations challenging the possibility of having transformative engagement about race Power differences affected by race ethnicity class gender sexuality ability age and geography are sometimes invisible Competent interracial communication is key to alleviating polarized interactions and addressing the unequal treatment of microcultures Part I of the book provides essential background including the history of race the importance of communication the development and intersectionality of racial and ethnic identities and models and theories of interracial communication Part II applies this information to communication practices in specific everyday contexts global racial hierarchies and colorism friendships romantic relationships communication in the workplace interracial conflict and race and ethnicity in the media The concluding chapter outlines pathways to meaningful change and invites readers to become active participants in dialogue to facilitate working through differences The authors offer comprehensive readable and insightful coverage of pressing issues They focus on communication as vital to removing barriers to understanding Becoming proactive in eliminating racism on a personal level is a step toward the macrolevel changes required to dismantle systemic racism The fourth edition is a socially relevant resource for facilitating interracial dialogue to create a positive climate to work together to achieve social justice Resources in Education ,1995-04 Reimagining (Bio)Medicalization, Pharmaceuticals and Genetics Susan E. Bell,Anne E. Figert,2015-02-11 In recent years medicalization the process of making something medical has gained considerable ground and a position in everyday discourse In this multidisciplinary collection of original essays the authors expertly consider how issues around medicalization have developed ways in which it is changing and the potential shapes it will take in the future They develop a unique argument that medicalization biomedicalization pharmaceuticalization and geneticization are related and co evolving processes present throughout the globe This is an ideal addition to anthropology sociology and STS courses about medicine and health

Journeys of Love Thomas Hodgson,2025-07-07 An empathetic and eye opening portrait of Muslim migrants in England that debunks many misperceptions about their music and poetry In Journeys of Love ethnomusicologist Thomas Hodgson offers a sensitive corrective to harmful portrayals of immigrants specifically Pakistanis living in England as a self segregating group prohibited from making music a stereotype that has often resulted in violent Islamophobia He argues that in practice these migrants many of whom come from the Mirpur area of Azad Kashmir occupy rich musical worlds full of poetic metaphors that are central to surviving migration and its attendant losses Hodgson shows how Mirpuris in England as well as those who remain in Pakistan carry on traditions of reciting a collection of poetry by the nineteenth century Sufi saint Mian Muhammad Bakhsh translated by Hodgson here as Journeys of Love With its themes of remaining true to one's home the oppressed being saved having patience and keeping faith in God this work has become the story of movement and displacement in its narrative arc as well as through the way it provides spiritual and ethical frameworks for settling in new lands These hidden poetics of migration transform across generations as young Mirpuris develop new expressions of the connections across continents These poetics reveal the connections between Kashmir's rural village life and urban centers abroad offering a sensitive and illuminating portrait of migration and multiculturalism in Britain and beyond Hauntings and Poltergeists James Houran,Rense Lange,2007-09-06 Few people can claim the distinction of experiencing first hand such occurrences as hauntings and the presence of poltergeists but countless numbers of people are fascinated by these unexplainable events Written by the world's most knowledgeable authorities in this field the essays in this work promote a better understanding of the manifestations of and various reasons for hauntings and poltergeist phenomena The experts come from such backgrounds as anthropology history philosophy psychiatry and sociology and provide sober yet highly readable in depth discussions of numerous ideas and rationalizations for hauntings and poltergeists from a critical and scientific perspective Divided into three major sections sociocultural physical and physiological and psychological perspectives this work provides an overview of each perspective and also addresses the general psychology of belief in the paranormal and how that belief relates to experiences with ghosts and poltergeists
