The Day The Sun Died A Novel:

The Day the Sun Died Yan Lianke, 2018-12-11 An unforgettable tale of a village that descends into a sleepwalking spell as the sun threatens to never rise again by the author of Discovering Fiction Yan Lianke has secured his place as contemporary China's most essential and daring novelist with his superlative gifts for storytelling and penetrating eye for truth New York Times Book Review His newest novel The Day the Sun Died winner of the Dream of the Red Chamber Award one of the most prestigious honors for Chinese language novels is a haunting story of a town caught in a waking nightmare In a little village nestled in the Balou mountains fourteen year old Li Niannian and his parents run a funeral parlor One evening he notices a strange occurrence Instead of preparing for bed more and more neighbors appear in the streets and fields carrying on with their daily business as if the sun hadn't already set Li Niannian watches mystified As hundreds of residents are found dreamwalking they act out the desires they've suppressed during waking hours Before long the community devolves into chaos and it's up to Li Niannian and his parents to save the town before sunrise Set over the course of one increasingly bizarre night The Day the Sun Died is a propulsive darkly sinister tale from a world class writer A New York Times Book Review Editors' Choice Named Best Book of the Year at Publishers Weekly Named Best Fiction in Translation Selection by Kirkus Reviews An Amazon Best Book of the Month The Day the Sun Died is the creepiest book I've read in years a social comedy that bleeds like a zombie apocalypse Yan's understated wit runs through these pages like a snake through fallen leaves Invokes that fluid dream state in which everything represents something else something deeper A wake up call about the path we're on Ron Charles Washington Post Floats between surrealism sci-fi horror and absurdism while never letting go of its satirical eye Yet the language and structure of the novel reads more like Samuel Beckett or James Joyce than it does The Handmaid's Tale Ploughshares The Day the Sun Died Dale Van Every, 1972 The Day the Sun Died Dale Van Every, 1971-01-01 The Routledge Companion to Yan Lianke Riccardo Moratto, Howard Yuen Fung Choy, 2022-03-10 Yan Lianke is one of the most important prolific and controversial writers in contemporary China At the forefront of the mythorealist Chinese avant-garde and using absurdist humor and grotesque satire Yan's works have caught much critical attention not only in the Chinese mainland Hong Kong and Taiwan but also around the world His critiques of modern China under both Mao era socialism and contemporary capitalism draw on a deep knowledge of history folklore and spirituality This companion presents a collection of critical essays by leading scholars of Yan Lianke from around the world organized into some of the key themes of his work Mythorealism Absurdity and Spirituality and History and Gender as well as the challenges of translating his work into English and other languages With an essay written by Yan Lianke himself this is a vital and authoritative resource for students and scholars looking to understand Yan's works from both his own perspective and those of leading critics Ideology and Form in Yan Lianke's Fiction Haiyan Xie, 2023-02-10 Xie analyzes three novels by the international award-winning Chinese writer Yan Lianke and investigates how his signature mythorealist form produces textual meanings that subvert the totalizing reality prescribed by literary realism The term mythorealism which Yan coined to describe his own writing style refers to a set of literary devices that incorporate both Chinese and Western literary elements while remaining primarily grounded in Chinese folk culture and literary tradition In his use of mythorealism carrying a burden of social critique that cannot allow itself to become political Yan transcends the temporality and provinciality of immediate social events and transforms his potential socio political commentaries into more diversified concerns for humanity existential issues and spiritual crisis Xie identifies three modes of mythorealist narrative exemplified in Yan's three novels the minjian folk mode in Dream of Ding Village the allusive mode in Ballad Hymn Ode and the enigmatic mode in The Four Books By positioning itself against an ambiguous articulation of social determinants of historical events that would perhaps be more straightforward in a purely realist text each mode of mythorealism moves its narrative from the overt politicality of the subject matter to the existential riddle of negotiating an alternative reality A groundbreaking study of one of contemporary China's most important authors that will be of great value to scholars and students of Chinese literature

Why Fiction Matters in Contemporary China David Der-wei Wang, Dewei Wang, 2020-11-14 Contemporary discussions of China tend to focus on politics and economics giving Chinese culture little if any attention Why Fiction Matters in Contemporary China offers a corrective revealing the crucial role that fiction plays in helping contemporary Chinese citizens understand themselves and their nation Where history fails to address the consequences of man made and natural atrocities David Der Wei Wang argues fiction arises to bear witness to the immemorial and unforeseeable Beginning by examining President Xi Jinping's call in 2013 to tell the good China story Wang illuminates how contemporary Chinese cultural politics have taken a fictional turn which can trace its genealogy to early modern times He does so by addressing a series of discourses by critics within China including Liang Qichao Lu Xun and Shen Congwen as well as critics from the West such as Arendt Benjamin and Deleuze Wang highlights the variety and vitality of fictional works from China as well as the larger Sinophone world ranging from science fiction to political allegory erotic escapade to utopia and dystopia The result is an insightful account of contemporary China one that affords countless new insights and avenues for understanding

Contemporary Chinese Novels in Translation since 1978 Yun Wu, 2024-10-14 This book aims to complement the traditional focus of translation studies which has primarily centered on translating English into other languages It presents a comprehensive analysis of the reverse translation trajectory exploring the movement of Chinese literature into the core English literary domain The book aims to explore the ideological and sociological dynamics that underlie the translation of contemporary Chinese novels This is achieved through an examination of the translation selection process translation paratexts and the roles of translation agents Case studies are employed to illustrate specific linguistic literary and cultural challenges within translation It dissects the cultural and literary implications of translating genres such as women's writing science fiction and Internet literature The argument presented is that the translation of peripheral literature is indispensable in shaping global literature Beyond its literary implications the book identifies the political significance inherent in such reverse translation endeavors It suggests that the translation of Chinese literature holds notable political interest for the Chinese government which aims to reshape China's image and bolster the nation's soft power through literary translation This work will be an essential read to students and scholars of translation studies comparative literature and Chinese studies

Comparative Literature in Canada Susan Ingram,Irene Sywenky,2019-11-05 This timely volume takes stock of the discipline of comparative literature and its theory and practice from a Canadian perspective It engages with the most pressing critical issues at the intersection of comparative literature and other areas of inquiry in the context of scholarship pedagogy and academic publishing bilingualism and multilingualism Indigeneity multiple canons literary and other the relationship between print culture and other media the development of information studies concerted efforts in digitization and the future of the production and dissemination of knowledge The authors offer an analysis of the current state of Canadian comparative literature with a dual focus on the issues of multilingualism in Canada's sociopolitical and cultural context and Canada's geographical location within the Americas It also discusses ways in which contemporary technology is influencing the way that Canadian literature is taught produced and disseminated and how this affects its readings

Exploring Sinophone Liminality in Contemporary Chinese Fiction Di-kai Chao, 2025-05-13 Chao explores Sinophone literature as a complex field that navigates the intersections of Sinitic languages, global literary systems, and China-centered perspectives. He presents an alternative perspective that Sinophone literature, especially through ghost narratives, offers a platform for communities to critically examine modernity, transgress boundaries, and challenge epistemologies. By emphasizing locality, this book critiques the homogenization of knowledge production and highlights the importance of local experiences in shaping Sinophone identity. Questioning the linear, essentialist interpretations of Chineseness, a more fluid understanding influenced by cultural memory, globalization, and transnational dynamics emerges. This book advocates for an expanded scope of Sinophone theory that includes the Chinese mainland, moving beyond an against-diaspora stance. Building upon postcolonialism and historical contexts, it examines literary texts and ghost narratives originating from Taiwan, Hong Kong, Malaysia, and the Chinese mainland, delving into the diversity of Sinophone literature. An excellent read for students, researchers, and scholars interested in Chinese literature, cultural studies, and critical literary work with a focus on Asian studies. The Golden Book Magazine, 1927 The Golden Book Magazine Frederica Pisek Field, Mary Elting, 1925
