I Want to Get On Graham Hutchins, 2014-08-01 Graham Hutchins fell in love with trains at an early age As a youngster growing up in the railway town of Te Kuiti he would gaze on the steaming monsters as they thundered through the King Country Before long train travel became more than a pastime more than a fascination he was hooked As he recounts in this book he was just ten years old when he undertook a journey alone on the night train to Auckland From then on he travelled as much as he could and later as a young man searched out the smaller forgotten lines to experience what they had to offer Stop the Train I want to get on describes his experiences travelling throughout New Zealand on regular passenger trains railcars goods trains and work trains The routes he traverses include the Central Otago line the Gisborne Railcar the Southerner to Invercargill a mixed train through rural Taranaki a workers train from Greymouth on the Rewanui Incline the Endeavour to Hawke's Bay the Silver Fern Railcar and more Many services have now been axed but he vividly recalls their delights from the scenery outside to the often primitive conditions inside and the people he encounters along the way He also tells many engaging tales about the history of the lines and what makes each so distinctive Sometimes alone on other occasions with his wife Jenny or his mate Russell he conveys the unique experience and sheer pleasure of rail travel in every corner of New Zealand from the 1950s to the present day Some people take to the bottle others go shopping I jump on a train if I can find one and wait for the swish and sway to take me away Away from the down times For me the diversion comes as much from the rhythm as the passing landscapes from the train window Graham Hutchins remembers the incredibly varied journeys he has taken by train
