Instructional Technology Barbara B. Seels, Rita C. Richey, 2012-10-01 The Association officially endorses this definition of Instructional Technology which has been developed over three years by the Committee on Definition and Terminology The Association recognizes that other theoretical frameworks exist and that these are valid but believes that these are part of the more inclusive theoretical framework of Instructional Technology used in this definition In making this definition and the document explaining it available we hope to help other organizations clarify their relationship to the broad field of Instructional Technology Although the Association offers this definition as its current position it is committed to a continuous reevaluation of the definition and to revising and publishing it so that it reflects changing concepts and terminology A document of this magnitude can only be produced as the result of the dedication and effort of the persons who formed the committee and of its chairperson Barbara Seels and her collaborator Rita C Richey Without their energies skill perseverance and willingness to risk stating their perceptions in this format we could not have offered this document Whether or not we agree with the statements presented here they will provide a benchmark and a point of dialogue for
