ShockDecember Charles Roxburgh,2002-11-28 21 horror movies in 48 hours Had anything comparable ever been attempted Would it be possible to absorb such a volume of madness and stupidity Could we maintain our sanity after such a barrage of bad taste Out of these questions an experiment was born an experiment that will forever be known as ShockDecember Three young men push the limits of taste and sanity by plunging headlong into the movie marathon to end all movie marathons Misleading box covers Foolish teenage victims Continuity errors galore The pole vault to freedom Multiple Donald Pleasance sightings Rampaging panavans Tom Hanks and his diatribe on fear And the worm eating the glorious worm eating The mind bending experience of ShockDecember is documented within these pages Lights, horror has been part of the cinema landscape Despite some of the earliest genre films with gay directors such as F W Murnau Nosferatu and James Whale Frankenstein The Invisible Man Bride of Frankenstein LGBTQIA characters have rarely been portrayed in full view For decades filmmakers have included coded content in their films with the homosexual experience translated into censor friendly subtext for consumption by general audiences Gradually LGBTQIA characters and themes have moved from the background to the foreground as the horror genre has grown along with its audience s tastes and attitudes Likewise more and more LGBTQIA writers and directors have begun to offer their queer centric takes on scary movies and today queer horror is a thriving film genre With more than 900 entries this critical filmography is a comprehensive critical yet playful examination of the history of LGBTQIA content in horror films Eight journalistic contributors dig into every era of scary movies including the early silents pre and post Hays Code content grindhouse sleaze LGBTQIA indies and megaplex studio releases From Whale s The Old Dark House 1932 to Don Mancini s Chucky films and everything in between this collection explores what can be found at the intersection of LGBTQIA and horror in the film industry New York Magazine ,1985-07-29 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning
