Kramers Between Tradition and Revolution* Max Dresden, 2012-12-06 It is now a little more than 11 years since the idea of writing a personal and scientific biography of H A Kramers took hold of me A few days earlier I had been lecturing in a course on field theory on the renormalization procedures of relativistic quantum field theory Since the students had considerable trouble understanding the physical basis of the procedure at the end of the lecture T explained that renormalization is not an exclusive quantum or relativistic procedure A careful treatment of classical electron theory as started by Lorentz and developed in detail by Kramers also requires renormalization The students appeared quite interested and I promised them that I would explain all this in more detail in the next lecture I could have looked up this material in Kramers book but I remembered that Kramers had stressed this idea in a course I had attended in Leiden in 1938 1939 I did dig up some of these old notes and although they were considerably less transparent than my recollection seemed to indicate they reminded me forcefully of the thrilling days I had spent in Leiden with Kramers Kramers deep insight and originality were apparent even when distorted by my opaque notes The students had never heard of these ideas of Kramers and were totally unaware of his work in field theory The Literature of Ecstasy Albert Mordell, 2019-12-13 In The Literature of Ecstasy Albert Mordell embarks on an intellectually provocative journey through the realms of ecstatic literature examining works that transcend conventional boundaries and delve into the depths of human experience With a lyrical and analytical prose style Mordell engages with a rich tapestry of texts from various cultures and epochs navigating through the works of poets and prose writers who grapple with ecstasy as a profound emotional and spiritual state The book situates ecstasy within literary modernism showcasing its evolution and multifaceted representation across diverse genres from Romanticism to modernist experimentation Albert Mordell a notable literary scholar and critic was deeply influenced by his encounters with avant garde movements and mystic traditions His profound understanding of psychological and philosophical undercurrents informs his exploration of ecstasy as a vital yet often overlooked facet of literature The author's own experiences with the transformative power of literature has inspired him to uncover the ways in which ecstatic expressions resonate with universal human themes thus illuminating the interplay between art and transcendent experience This essential reading is highly recommended for scholars students and enthusiasts of literature who seek to expand their understanding of ecstatic experience in literary contexts Mordell's incisive analysis not only enriches the appreciation of canonized texts but also invites readers to reconsider the very nature of literary engagement making it an indispensable addition to the libraries of those passionate about the intersections of emotion and art
