Sisters Shared Histories Lifelong Ties:

Sisters Elizabeth Fishel, 1994-01-01 The Sister Knot Terri Apter, 2015-05-27 The best book on sisters very important and beautifully written Carol Gilligan author of In a Different Voice This substantial contribution to the literature on sibling relationships Library Journal explores the intricacy friction and love in bonds between sisters Relationships between women are often freighted with a rocky mix of emotions devotion and disregard affection and loathing admiration and envy leading to anguish and confusion on the playground in the home and in the boardroom Negotiating her layered feelings toward a sister shapes a woman's psychology as forcefully as do her relationships with her parents Drawing on compelling interviews and new research Terri Apter considers the many aspects of the sister relationship from birth through adulthood The need to fight to differentiate oneself from a sister as well the protectiveness one feels for that same person is explained by reference to extensive psychological and biological evidence No Friend Like a Sister Jenny Neale, 2004 Publisher description

Sisters and Rivals in British Women's Fiction, 1914-39 D. Wallace, 2000-06-21 What happens when two women love the same man This is the first book to examine female rivalry as a distinctive theme in women's fiction and to analyze the female identified erotic triangle where two women are rivals for the same man as a narrative pattern which has a special resonance for inter war women writers Focusing on five key writers Diana Wallace offers a reconsideration of inter war women's writing and an examination of the links and rivalries between women writers themselves Sibling Revelry Jo Ann Levitt, M.A., R.N., Marjory Levitt, Ph.D., 2009-08-26 Experience the miracle of healing with a unique step by step program for enhancing adult sibling relationships created by siblings for siblings Much has been written about the relationships of parents and children But the unsung chord in all of our adult relationships professional and personal is rooted in the sibling connection In this extraordinary book based on their Sibling Revelry workshops authors and siblings Jo Ann Marjory and Joel Levitt re create the seminars that have helped many strengthen the bonds of their adult sibling relationships In eight clearly focused steps with added material for home study the authors show how to transform sibling rivalry into extraordinary nurturing adult bonds that will enhance all other relationships in your life Now you can regain the closeness you and your siblings once shared heal old wounds and pave the way to a happier healthier future Learn how to Define your relationship Unload the myths of your shared past and discover who you are to each other now Witness the effect of old rivalries And use them as a springboard to great adult relationships Envision a new future Break the habits that hold your relationship firmly in place and create a powerful new vision for yourself and your family Explore new modes of contact Examine the role you play in your family and free yourself from damaging old patterns Heal wounds and misunderstandings Resolve old conflicts as you sort through old issues of fear anger guilt and hurt Invent new family legends Uncover the myths and legends that have shaped your relationship then create new ones Make room for differences Clear out sibling clutter and accept your siblings exactly as they are Honor your strengths Celebrate the positive qualities each sibling brings to the relationship and set the stage for a lifelong connection Frenemies in the Family Kathleen Krull, 2018-03-13 One minute you can't live without them the next minute you don't want them breathing your air Siblings everywhere will relate to this humorous look at famous brothers and sisters whose important bonds have shaped their accomplishments mostly for the better They blame you when they get in trouble They seem like your parents' favorite They are the only enemy you can't live without Almost everyone has a juicy story about their siblings even famous people Meet those who got along those who didn't and everyone in between Demi Lovato and her sister Tennis superstars Serena and Venus Williams Walt and Roy Disney Princes William and Harry Stephen Colbert and his eleven older siblings Quarterbacks Peyton and Eli Manning The Jacksons Michael Janet and family Reality TV sensations the Gosselins Queen Elizabeth I and the queen who history remembers as Bloody Mary Conjoined twins Chang and Eng Bunker John Wilkes Booth the man who assassinated Abraham Lincoln and his brother Edwin Vincent and Theo van Gogh Airplane inventors the Wright brothers The Romanovs The Kennedys Oh brother This could get ugly Making Sense of Women's Lives Michelle Plott, Lauri Umansky, 2000 Making Sense of Women's Lives presents a wide range of writings about women's lives in the United States Michele Plott and Lauri Umansky have drawn on their experiences as both students and professors to assemble the collection Seeking to provide as full a sampling from a diverse and intellectually vibrant field as one volume permits the editors have also chosen writing that makes an enjoyable read A few of the selections here represent the undisputed classics of the field More of them constitute simply the works drawn from academic and nonacademic sources alike that could make a difference in understanding what it means to be female in America Making Sense of Women's Lives is intended as the primary text in Women's Studies courses With that usage in mind Plott and Umansky have provided brief introductions to each article to help students understand the author's perspectives Thought and discussion questions follow each selection The book contains as well numerous Flash Exercises suggestions for class exercises and activities The editors have used these activities in their courses over the past decade in conjunction with readings in this volume and have found that the full complement of materials coalesces into an intellectually powerful introduction to Women's Studies A Collegiate Press book Sisters on Screen Eva Rueschmann, 2000 Perhaps the most vital emotionally complex and lasting attachments between women occur between sisters Whether as best friends or antagonists sisters remain entangled in a common tapestry of mutual experience and remembrance family and history according to author Eva Rueschmann Although many of the women centered films in the last three decades depict the relationship between sisters as a pivotal aspect of a character's psychological development the now substantial body of feminist film criticism has not taken up this theme in any sustained way In Sisters on Screen Eva Rueschmann explores the sister bond in a wide range of modernist feature films that depart from the conventional cinematic rendering of women's lives Drawing on the psychoanalytic concept of intersubjectivity this book emphasizes the role of a woman's relationship and inner world in her continual quest for self knowledge Offering an original and absorbing perspective on women's filmic images Sisters on Screen reveals how post 1960s cinema has articulated the ways in which biological sisters negotiate mutuality and difference co author family histories and profoundly shape each other's political and personal identities The films in focus question standards of femininity as they probe into memory fantasy and desire bringing women's realities into view in the process Structuring her discussion in terms of life cycle stages adolescence and adulthood Rueschmann offers an in depth discussion of such films as An Angel at My Table Double Happiness Eve's Bayou Gas Food Lodging Heavenly Creatures Little Women Marianne and Julianne Paura e amore Peppermint Soda The Silence Sweetie and Welcome to the Dollhouse Rueschmann draws upon the works of filmmakers from the 1970s to the 1990s Some of the directors included in her study are Allison Anders Gillian Armstrong Ingmar Bergman Jane Campion Peter Jackson Mina Shum Diane Kurys Kasi Lemmons Todd Solondz and Margarethe von Trotta Sisters on Screen will appeal to anyone interested in women's studies film studies psychology psychoanalytic readings of cinema women directors and international modern film Author note Eva Rueschmann is Assistant Professor of Cultural Studies at Hampshire College Care Managers: Working with the Aging Family Cathy Cress, 2009-10-07 Care Managers Working with the Aging Family addresses the unmet needs of care managers working with aging clients as well as the client's entire family With its in depth focus on the aging family system this book fills a gap for medical case managers and geriatric care managers giving them tools to better meet the treatment goals of aging clients and their families as the older clients move through the continuum of care in institutional based settings or community based settings Care Managers Working With the Aging Family uniquely focuses on helping the entire family unit through the process of death and dying helping midlife siblings to work together to render care to aging parents It adds proven techniques to the care manager repertoire such as family meetings forgiveness technology and care giver assessment It offers multiple tools to do an effective care plan so that both the needs of the family and the older client are met

Feminist Dilemmas in Qualitative Research Jane Ribbens, Rosalind Edwards, 1997-12-12 How can researchers produce work with relevance to theoretical and formal traditions and requirements of public academic knowledge while still remaining faithful to the experiences and accounts of research participants based in private settings Feminist Dilemmas in Qualitative Research explores this key dilemma and examines the interplay between theory epistemology and the detailed practice of research It does this across the whole research process access data collection and analysis and writing up research It goes on to consider ways of achieving high standards of reflexivity and openness in the strategic choices made during research examining these issues for specific projects in an open and accessible style Particular themes examined are the research dilemmas that occur from feminist perspectives in relation to researching private and personal social worlds the position of the researcher as situated between public knowledge and private experience and the dilemmas raised for researchers seeking to contribute to academic discourse while remaining close to their knowledge forms
