Therapeutics Constantin Hering, 1875 Analytical Therapeutics Constantine Hering, 1875 Analytical Repertory of the Symptoms of the Mind Constantin Hering, 1881 John Donne in the Time of COVID Mary Ann Antley, 2022-11-30 In 1623

John Donne, dean of Saint Paul's Cathedral in London, suddenly fell ill of a pestilential illness. He took notes during this near-fatal illness and published them as Devotions Upon Emergent Occasions in 1624. It is in the context of devotional literature that this book has formerly been studied. If, however, the work is read with specific attention focused on the dynamics of Donne's psychological responses to a serious illness, it may be seen to be the powerful dramatic presentation of his struggle for emotional and spiritual survival following the disruption of a previously accepted value system. Our population today has experienced many of these feelings in facing illness, isolation, and death during the course of COVID-19. We are all Donne. He gives us a voice from four hundred years in the past. The Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, 1886 American

Journal of Physiology, 1923 Volumes for 1898, 1941, 1948-56 include the Society's proceedings, primarily abstracts of papers presented at the 10th, 53rd, annual meetings, and the 1948-56 fall meetings. A Will of His Own Kelly Harland, 2007 This collection of essays reveals the often contrasting mix of emotion that comes with raising a son with autism. Harland's stories explore the first nine years of her son's life and the new and unexpected universe she and her husband must learn to navigate with him. The Railroad Trainman, 1918 Jurek Becker Sander L. Gilman, 2003-12-15 In the first biography of this figure, Sander Gilman tells the story of Becker's life in five worlds: the Polish Jewish middle-class neighborhood where Becker was born, the Warsaw ghetto, and the concentration camps where Becker spent his childhood; the socialist order of the GDR, which Becker idealized, resisted, and finally was forced to leave; the isolated world of West Berlin where he settled down to continue his writing; and the new reunified Germany for which Becker served as both conscience and inspiration.

Diamant, 2009-09-08 Just as she gave voice to the silent women of the Old Testament in The Red Tent, Anita Diamant creates a cast of breathtakingly vivid characters: young women who escaped to Israel from Nazi Europe. In this intensely dramatic novel, Day After Night is based on the extraordinary true story of the October 1945 rescue of more than two hundred prisoners from the Atlit internment camp a prison for illegal immigrants run by the British military near the Mediterranean coast south of Haifa The story is told through the eyes of four young women at the camp with profoundly different stories All of them survived the Holocaust Shayndel a Polish Zionist Leonie a Parisian beauty Tedi a hidden Dutch Jew and Zorah a concentration camp survivor Haunted by unspeakable memories and losses afraid to begin to hope Shayndel Leonie Tedi and Zorah find salvation in the bonds of friendship and shared experience even as they confront the challenge of re creating themselves in a strange new country This is an unforgettable story of tragedy and redemption a novel that reimagines a moment in history with such stunning eloquence that we are haunted and moved by every devastating detail Day After Night is a triumphant work of fiction
