The Geopolitics Of Hunger:

The Geopolitics of Hunger Josué de Castro, 1977 The Geopolitics of Hunger, 2000-2001 Action Against Hunger, 2001
In 34 papers authors draw on research and firsthand field experience in many parts of the world to explore the use of hunger as a political weapon. They also discuss strategies to counter inequitable food distribution in such situations, consider the role of humanitarian organizations, and review policies that could be used to combat hunger. Action Against Hunger is an international organization founded in 1979 in France that works to assist victims of human-made famines. This book is the group's second report on global issues of hunger. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc. Portland, OR The Geopolitics of Hunger, 2000-2001, 2001. This volume explores the use of hunger as a weapon in food crises around the world. It also discusses strategies to counter inequitable food distribution while maintaining neutrality in complex situations and reviews political approaches to combating hunger and attaining food justice. Geopolitics of Hunger, 2000-2001:, 2001 The Geopolitics of Hunger, 1999 Geopolitics of Hunger, 1999 The Social Basis of Health and Healing in Africa Steven Feierman, John M. Janzen, 1992-09-22. These essays are an account of disease, health, and healing practices on the African continent. The contributors all emphasize the social conditions linked to ill health and the development of local healing traditions from Morocco to South Africa and from the precolonial era to the present. Geographers Elizabeth Baigent, André Reyes Novaes, 2022-06-16. The 40th volume of Geographers Biobibliographical Studies focuses exclusively on geographers from the Global South. For the first time in the series' history, the entire volume is devoted to geographers who were born or who lived in South America and is combined with an editorial which roots their lives and careers in the context of the Global South more generally. These geographers' biobibliographies, which consider their personal and professional trajectories and encounters, deepen our understanding of geography as a whole and raise important wider questions of the scope and place of Southern scholarship. This volume includes meticulously detailed volumes on five of the most prominent and ground-breaking geographers in the Global South, including the Argentinian geographer Elina González Acha de Correa Morales, who was the first woman to apply for membership of the Argentinean Geographical Institute in 1888 and who played an important role in developing geographical science in Argentina; the Brazilian geographer Bernardino de Souza, active in Brazil in the late nineteenth century as a secretary of the Geographical and Historical Institute of Bahia; the Portuguese scholar Jaime Zuzarte Cortesão, Director of the National Library of Portugal, who was exiled in Brazil between 1940 and 1957 and greatly influenced research into the exploration and mapping of South America; the Brazilian geographer Josué Apolônio de Castro, who was a member of the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization's international advisory group on nutrition during the 1940s and the 1950s; and the late twentieth-century Brazilian geographer Antônio Carlos Robert Moraes, who was a key figure in the circulation of critical approaches in Brazilian geography. Together, these biobibliographies allow the reader to focus on the Global South as a place of geographical knowledge production, translation, and reception, enlarging our discipline's histories The volume also links the serial firmly to wider debates on decolonisation and post colonialism and is the latest manifestation of the editorial drive to broaden the serial's reach and impact and to consolidate its place as an important vehicle in narrating geography's international story At Risk Piers Blaikie, Terry Cannon, Ian Davis, Ben Wisner, 2014-01-21 The term natural disaster is often used to refer to natural events such as earthquakes hurricanes or floods However the phrase natural disaster suggests an uncritical acceptance of a deeply engrained ideological and cultural myth At Risk questions this myth and argues that extreme natural events are not disasters until a vulnerable group of people is exposed The updated new edition confronts a further ten years of ever more expensive and deadly disasters and discusses disaster not as an aberration but as a signal failure of mainstream development Two analytical models are provided as tools for understanding vulnerability One links remote and distant root causes to unsafe conditions in a progression of vulnerability The other uses the concepts of access and livelihood to understand why some households are more vulnerable than others Examining key natural events and incorporating strategies to create a safer world this revised edition is an important resource for those involved in the fields of environment and development studies The Geopolitics and Political Ecology of Hunger Benjamin Wisner, Dan Wiener, Philip O'Keefe, 1981*
