Pimps Up, Ho's Down T. Denean Denean Sharpley-Whiting, 2007-03-01 Untangles the intricately knotted issues around hip hop culture and its treatment of young black women Pimps Up Ho's Down pulls at the threads of the intricately knotted issues surrounding young black women and hip hop culture What unravels for Tracy D Sharpley Whiting is a new and problematic politics of gender In this fascinating and forceful book Sharpley Whiting a feminist writer who is a member of the hip hop generation interrogates the complexities of young black women's engagement with a culture that is masculinist misogynistic and frequently mystifying Beyond their portrayal in rap lyrics the display of black women in music videos television film fashion and on the Internet is indispensable to the mass media engineered appeal of hip hop culture the author argues And the commercial trafficking in the images and behaviors associated with hip hop has made them appear normal acceptable and entertaining both in the U S and around the world Sharpley Whiting questions the impacts of hip hop's increasing alliance with the sex industry the rise of groupie culture in the hip hop world the impact of hip hop's compulsory heterosexual culture on young black women and the permeation of the hip hop ethos into young black women's conceptions of love and romance The author knows her subject from the inside Coming of age in the midst of hip hop's evolution in the late 1980s she mixed her graduate studies with work as a runway and print model in the 1990s Her book features interviews with exotic dancers black hip hop groupies and hip hop generation members Jacklyn Diva Bush rapper Trina and filmmaker Aishah Simmons along with the voices of many everyday young women Pimps Up Ho's Down turns down the volume and amplifies the substance of discussions about hip hop culture and to provide a space for young black women to be heard 2007 Popular Culture Association American Culture Association Emily Toth Award

Glock Paul M. Barrett, 2013-01-15 The Glock pistol is America's Gun It has been rhapsodized by hip hop artists and coveted by cops and crooks alike Created in 1982 by Gaston Glock the pistol arrived in America at a fortuitous time Law enforcement agencies had concluded that their agents and officers armed with standard six round revolvers were getting outgunned by drug dealers with semi automatic pistols they needed a new gun With its lightweight plastic frame and large capacity spring action magazine the Glock was the gun of the future You could drop it underwater toss it from a helicopter or leave it out in the snow and it would still fire It was reliable accurate lightweight and cheaper to produce than Smith and Wesson's revolver Filled with corporate intrigue political maneuvering Hollywood glitz bloody shoot outs and an attempt on Gaston Glock's life by a former lieutenant Glock is not only the inside account of how Glock the company went about marketing its pistol to police agencies and later the public but also a compelling chronicle of the evolution of gun culture in America

Reading Contemporary African American Literature Beauty Bragg, 2014-11-12 Reading Contemporary African American Literature focuses on the subject of contemporary African American popular fiction by women Bragg's study addresses why such work should be the subject of scholarly examination describes the events and attitudes which account for the critical neglect of this body of work and models a critical approach to such narratives that demonstrates the distinctive ways in which this literature captures the complexities of post civil rights era black experiences In making her arguments regarding the value of popular writing Bragg argues that black women s popular fiction foregrounds gender in ways that are frequently missing from other modes of narrative production They exhibit a responsiveness and timeliness to the shifting social terrain which is reflected in the rapidly shifting styles and themes which characterize popular fiction In doing so they extend the historical function of African American literature by continuing to engage the black body as a symbol of political meaning in the social context of the United States In popular literature Beauty Bragg locates a space from which black women engage a variety of public discourses Black Deception Jacklyn Bush, Monica Regina Payton, 2002 The One Hundred Twenty Dollar Gold Club One Hundred Twenty Dollar Gold Club, Yreka, Calif, 1960*
