The Golden Gates Of Heaven:

The Golden Gates of Heaven Be'be Byrne, 2003-11-01 The golden gate Sabine Baring-Gould, 1896 The Golden Gate of Prayer James Russell Miller, 1900 Troubled by Faith Owen Davies, 2023

The early nineteenth century witnessed the birth of psychiatry a new medical science that fundamentally changed how mental illness was labelled and understood

Troubled by Faith explores how psychiatrists not only thought they were agents of modernity but that they could also explain the occult mysteries of the past They bristled with confidence that in an era of unprecedented change unlocking the secrets of the mind was essential to an ordered and progressive society And a progressive society was one that did not believe in witches ghosts and fairies and did not exhibit excited religious emotions and divine communications Through examining the extensive psychiatric literature from Europe and America Troubled by Faith charts how once widely held popular beliefs were pathologized and how this fundamentally impacted on the notion of criminal and legal responsibility In the second half of the book we listen to the voices of asylum patients as recorded in case books The asylum was an extraordinary cultural space where under one roof prophets messiahs the bewitched and the haunted mixed and people wrestled with angels devils imps and witches It was a place filled with talk of infernal machines and sinister electrical forces Whether seriously ill and deluded or sane and lucid in their beliefs and imaginings patients experiences were nevertheless reflective of a society being transformed by technology and yet still rooted in the supernatural
