The Gift Of Creation

Mark Manolopoulos

The Gift Of Creation:

The Gift of Creation Matyas Szalay, 2024-11-07 What does it mean to consider creation as a divine gift In the post Laudato Si era it has become more important than ever to rediscover and further develop a Catholic philosophy and theology of creation To that end a diversity of scholars has produced this collection of essays that examine our relationship with the Creator and the created world through a variety of lenses The authors of these chapters engage timeless visionaries such as St Augustine and St Hildegard of Bingen as well as more contemporary voices like Edith Stein St Teresa Benedicta of the Cross and Ferdinand Ulrich as they endeavor to deepen our understanding of Catholic teaching on creation and the nature of being Featuring contributions from internationally recognized philosophers and theologians including Rocco Buttiglione William Cavanaugh Salvador Antuñano and Alea and others this volume seeks to challenge the reader in an examination of what it means to receive the gift of creation The Gift of Creation Norman Wirzba, 2009 If Creation Is a Gift Mark

Manolopoulos, 2009-02-13 What if our world were considered a gift Extending postmodern gift theory to ecological and ecotheological concerns Mark Manolopoulos explores how creation the what is can be seen as a gift Creation when viewed in a radically egalitarian way is the matrix of all material things human otherwise than human or humanly manufactured Utilizing and critiquing the work of Jacques Derrida and Jean Luc Marion Manolopoulos argues that the gift is an irresolvable paradox marked by the contradictory elements of excess gratuity linearity and exchange gratitude return Philosophical and theological reflections on the gift become entangled in its paradoxical tension but ultimately both aspects must be respected and reflected When it comes to the creation gift we should vacillate between responses like letting be enjoyment utility and return Elegantly written and thought provoking If Creation Is a Gift both contributes to the ongoing debate on the gift and provides a fresh philosophical and theological consideration of the environmental crisis Creation: A Guide for the

Perplexed Simon Oliver, 2017-06-29 This addition to our popular Guides for the Perplexed series tackles a subject that is enjoying renewed debate Christianity along with Judaism and Islam claims that the universe is not a brute fact It is created But what do we mean by creation Do we mean that the universe is designed Is it the product of an evolutionary process How are creatures related to God and does God act within creation Simon Oliver begins with the background to the Christian theology of creation in Greek philosophy and the Old Testament This provides a route into understanding the claim that we are part of a created order that is also the theatre of God's providential action He examines different understandings of creation including creation out of nothing and the analogy of being with close reference to the work of patristic and medieval theologians such as Augustine and Thomas Aquinas This leads to an historical overview of the relationship between theological philosophical and scientific approaches to creation in the modern period Some of the ethical issues concerning humanity's place within and treatment of creation and our environment are also examined A distinctive yet traditional theology of creation is proposed focused on the concepts of gift and participation as ways of understanding more fully the meaning and implications of the claim that the universe is created

Creation and Religious Pluralism David Cheetham, 2020 In the well worn debates about religious pluralism and the theology of religions there have been many different rubrics used to account for comprehend or engage with the religious other This book is chiefly a work of Christian theology and seeks to bring the doctrine of creation and the theology of religions into dialogue and in so doing it comes at things from a different direction than other works It contains an extensive exploration of the doctrine of creation and asks how it might intervene distinctively in these discourses to produce a new conceptual and practical topography It will consider inter religious engagement from the perspective of the doctrine of I creatio ex nihilo I that forms the dominant view in the Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions The book pays close consideration to anthropology i e creaturehood the quotidian and wisdom the idea of sabbath human action and work and vivifying the immanent through a consideration of some representative phenomenologists The book will develop these ideas in a more practical direction by considering sacraments and rituals in the public sphere as well as attempting to describe the kind of creational politics that might bring traditions into dialogue Whilst these themes challenge more conventional ways of considering relations between religions such themes because they are different from concerns commonly found in the literature can also be profitably engaged with across the spectrum of opinion i e exclusivist or pluralist etc Thus whilst the position adopted in this work is I creatio ex nihilo I part of the motivation is to review the ways in which this focus helps to broaden rather than limit the discussion

Kingdom Come Jason Byassee, Jeremy Kidwell, Jonathan Wilson-Hartgrove, Leah Wilson-Hartgrove, 2022-09-19 For four decades the Rev Dr Jonathan R Wilson has cultivated an imagination for kingdom realism as a pastor teacher theologian and friend To celebrate his seventieth birthday Kingdom Come has gathered reflections from fellow theologians popular authors poets and practitioners to mark both the range of Wilson s influence on the Christian church and the consistency of his prayer and work for God s kingdom to come here on earth as it is in heaven With contributions from Isaac Villegas Reggie Williams Willie Jennings Stanley Hauerwas Greg Jones Tim Dickau Chandra Mallampalli Reinhard Hutter Axel Schoeber John Berkman Phil Kenneson AKM Adam Margaret Adam Craig Smith Jen Harvey Jeff Greenman Loren Wilkinson Marilyn McEntyre Anna Robbins Terry Smith Munyamasoko Gato Corneil Mike Pears James Purves Danny Zacharias Mike Swalm Susan Phillips Ross Lockhart Ross Hastings Matt Humphrey Peter Harris Anthony Brown Phil Rolnick Andrew Shepherd Chris Hall Joy Banks Christopher Johnston Soohwan Park

The Theology of Louis-Marie Chauvet Glenn Ambrose, 2016-02-24 The Theology of Louis Marie Chauvet provides a much needed accessible introduction to the philosophical and theological foundations of Chauvet s sacramental theology Particular attention is given to his appropriation of Heidegger and use of the Social Sciences to elucidate the nature of the symbolic exchange that lies at the heart of the sacramental tradition This book highlights the prophetic deconstructive and even iconoclastic message for contemporary society and the church implicit in the Eucharistic liturgy Common conceptions of God s presence and sacrifice are critically analyzed and the connection between sacramental worship and ethics is emphasized CREATION AND COSMOLOGY Rudolf B. Brun, 2009 A collection of essays that except one were published either in Zygon or in Communio T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation, 2024-03-07 The T how the doctrine of creation informs and is informed by various dogmatic commitments and how the doctrine of creation relates to a range of human concerns and activities The Handbook represents a celebration of fascination with bewilderment at lament about and hope for all that is and serves as a scholarly innovative and constructive reference for those interested in attending to what Christian belief has to contribute to thinking about and living with the mysterious existence named creation Gift of Being Zachary Hayes, 2001 In view of the critical environmental problems confronting the modern world reflection on the nature and meaning of the world and on humanity's place in it becomes increasingly important While Christian theology has done this for centuries the present situation calls for a serious rethinking of many issues in the light of contemporary physics biology and cultural history The Gift of Being presents insights of the sciences in a way that is helpful for Christians today Creation theology helps believers come to a stronger sense of their own identity as they come to an awareness of the world This enables them to gain a deeper insight into how they ought to relate to that world if they wish to find meaning in their lives This state of being requires a willingness to distinguish between the medium and the message in approaching the Scriptures It also requires a willingness to take the sciences seriously In The Gift of Being Hayes focuses on traditional questions of creation but also comments on where science is with creation anthropology and destiny He begins by discussing the relation between faith and reason and hence between theology and science from a historical perspective moving to the most current statements of modern Popes He follows with a summary statement of the possible retrieval of the biblical religious insights that can be distinguished from the physical worldview that stands behind much of the biblical material This allows for a discussion of the traditional concept of creation from nothing in the form of a conversation with contemporary physics He then discusses the Christian idea of God as the primal mystery of creative love from whom all of creation flows With these foundational ideas in place Hayes looks at such questions as the origin of humanity and the failure of humanity throughout history He then focuses on the tradition of cosmic Christology Finally the theological issues of the final outcome of God's creation and its history is discussed against the background of the current scientific projections of a future for the cosmos Chapters are Science the Bible and Christianity The Vision of the Hebrew Scriptures Creation and the Christian Scriptures Creation from Nothing The Triune God the Creator Humanity in the Cosmic Context Sin and Evil Christ and the Cosmos and Creation and the Future Zachary Hayes OFM PhD 1932 2014 was a professor of systematic theology at Catholic Theological Union He taught and wrote extensively on matters related to the theological understanding of creation and the relation between theology and science He was on the staff of the Chicago Center for Religion and Science He was the author of Visions of a Future A Study of Christian Eschatology from the New Theology Studies series published by The Liturgical Press
