The Godforsaken:

The Godforsaken Chelsea Quinn Yarbro, 1983 Cursed by the devil Rolon the heir to King Alonzo's throne becomes a hound of hell who terrorizes the countryside of Inquisition Spain

Theology of Jürgen Moltmann Richard Bauckham, 1995-01-06 The most comprehensive study available of one of the most influential of German Protestant theologians

The God Who Believes Christian D. Kettler, 2005-09-01 How does one deal with doubt Are faith and doubt irreconcilable Does one's understanding of God affect the answers to these questions Christian Kettler investigates these questions from a christological perspective drawing implications from the Scottish theologian T F Torrance and his doctrine of the vicarious humanity of Christ If we take the humanity of Christ seriously should we not speak of the faith of Jesus as a vicarious faith believing for us and in our place when it is difficult if not impossible to believe How Christians know God Jesus Knows God for Us and in Our Place who God is Who is the God Whom Jesus Knows and how to believe in God in a world of suffering and evil Providence Evil Suffering and the God Who Believes receive new insight in light of this christological exploration Wendell Berry's poignant novel of a humble country barber Jayber Crow adds an incarnational context to a discussion with important pastoral and existential dimensions In the vicarious faith of Christ we are not left as James Torrance cautions us to be thrown back upon ourselves but called to participate by the Spirit in the faith of Jesus

Our Only Hope Margaret B Adam, 2014-08-28 The most popular source of theological hope for modern Christians is that of Jürgen Moltmann Preachers teachers and lay people reflect Moltmann's influence with their hope in a this worldly eschatology and suffering God However an exclusive reliance on that hope deprives the church of crucial resources in the face of global economic environmental and military crises Our Only Hope explores Moltmannian hope and considers its costs before looking elsewhere for additional contributions from Thomas Aquinas theological virtue of hope to nihilism and beyond in order to encourage the church to sustain and practise hope in Jesus Christ our only hope

Sportsman's Paradise Nancy Lemann, 1999-10-01

The Crucified God Jürgen Moltmann, 2015-11-01 From its English publication in 1973 Jürgen Moltmann's The Crucified God garnered much attention and it has become one of the seminal texts of twentieth century theology Following up on his groundbreaking Theology of Hope The Crucified God established the cross as the foundation for Christian hope Moltmann's dramatic innovation was to see the cross not as a problem of theodicy but instead as an act of ultimate solidarity between God and humanity In this he drew on liberation theology and he was among the first to bring third world theologies into a first world context Moltmann proposes that suffering is not a problem to be solved but instead that suffering is an aspect of God's very being God is love and love invariably involves suffering In this view the crucifixion of Jesus is an event that affects the entirety of the Trinity showing that The Crucified God is more than an arresting title it is a theological breakthrough

21st-Century Gothic Daniel Olson, 2011 Selected by a poll of more than 180 Gothic specialists creative writers professors critics and Gothic Studies program developers at universities the fifty three original works discussed in 21st Century Gothic represent the most impressive Gothic novels written around the world between 2000-2010. The essays in this volume discuss the merits of these novels highlighting the influences and key components that make them worthy of inclusion. Many of the pioneer voices of Gothic Studies as well as other key critics of the field have all contributed new essays to this volume including David Punter, Jerrold Hogle, Karen F. Stein, Marie Mulvey Roberts, Mary Ellen Snodgrass, Tony Magistrale, Don D. Ammassa, Mavis Haut, Walter Rankin, James Doig, Laurence A. Rickels, Douglass H. Thomson, Sue Zlosnik, Carol Margaret Davison, Ruth Bienstock Anolik, Glennis Byron, Judith Wilt, Bernice Murphy, Darrell Schweitzer, and June Pulliam. The guide includes a preface by one of the world's leading authorities on the weird and fantastic, S. T. Joshi. Sharing their knowledge of how traditional Gothic elements and tensions surface in a changed way within a contemporary novel, the contributors enhance the reader's dark enjoyment, emotional involvement, and appreciation of these works. These essays show not only how each of these novels are Gothic but also how they advance or change Gothicism, making the works both irresistible for readers and establishing their place in the Gothic canon.

A Jewish Trinity Alan Brill, 2025-10-28. The Christian affirmation of a triune God has always perplexed and confounded Jews. Can Jews get beyond understanding the Trinity as inherently tritheistic? A Jewish Trinity serves as an entrance into a range of issues in Jewish-Christian theological difference, presenting a Jewish understanding of six topics in contemporary Christian theology: Trinity, original sin, incarnation, salvation, messianism, and covenant. In A Jewish Trinity, Alan Brill seeks a Jewish appreciation for the core theological differences between the two religions. The book is informed by recent historical studies of the early Jewish-Christian division, showing greater commonality in theological ideas. The book, however, concentrates on contemporary Christian theology, especially the constructive theology of Karl Rahner and Jürgen Moltmann, to demonstrate that contemporary Christian theological formulations possess greater affinity to Jewish conceptions than did prior Christian theology while also still providing religious difference. This work of comparative theology is a crucial next step in Jewish-Christian encounter for our historically informed, post-polemical age. Brill shows that Jews and Christians can engage in comparative discourse on theological issues with full clarity and understanding. The book seeks to change the field of Jewish-Christian encounter, going beyond reconciliation toward a richer and deeper theological discussion of similarity and difference.

The Spirit at the Cross: Exploring a Cruciform Pneumatology Carolyn E. L. Tan, 2019-09-19. What was the Holy Spirit doing at the cross of Jesus Christ? Jesus' death and resurrection are central to God's reconciliation with humanity. Does the Holy Spirit's work pause between Gethsemane and the resurrection? What does the phrase "through the eternal Spirit" in Hebrews 9:14 mean? In this book, Tan examines the perspectives of John Vernon Taylor, Jürgen Moltmann, and John D. Zizioulas, from whom three views of the Spirit's role at the cross are discerned: the Spirit as the bond of love between the Father and the Son, the Spirit as the Son's coworker, enabler, and power, and the Spirit as the unifier who unites humanity to the Son. In addition, Karl Barth provides the intriguing concept of the Spirit as divine Judge, along with the Father and the Son, and specifically the one who carries out

God's judgment in Jesus Christ the Elect Integrating these theological perspectives with an in depth examination of the manuscript and exegetical and hermeneutical history of Hebrews 9-14 Tan offers another way of understanding the role of the Spirit at the cross Christ as the Father's pneumatic crucible in whom sinful humanity is judged destroyed and reborn through the power of the Holy Spirit Pilgrimage of Love Joy Ann McDougall, 2005-10-13 This book engages one of the liveliest theological debates at the turn of the twenty first century the significance of the doctrine of the Trinity to the Christian concept of God and to its life of faith
