volume given both their practical and symbolic importance The volume focuses on the behaviour and policies of the main arms exporting nations since the end of the Cold War shifts in their arms export policies and the tensions that can emerge within or between countries over proposed arms sales It also considers the impact of countries that were previously only recipients of advanced weapons moving to develop their own defence industrial base Denationalisation of Defence Janne Haaland Matlary, Øyvind Østerud, 2016-05-23 Denationalisation of Defence consists of two major parts first a generic and analytical section which presents the developmental trends in privatization and internationalization of armed force and second an empirical section analyzing the impact of these trends on the Nordic countries defence and security sectors The Nordic countries have a special relevance as objects of study given their traditionally strong public spheres and state orientated systems of governance This volume questions whether the process of denationalization has reached a point where countries are reacting to changes in their security environment by increasingly introducing elements of privatization and international integration Militarizing the Environment Robert P.
